SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 801 of the Department of Energy Organization Act of 1977 requires the President to submit a National Energy Policy Plan to Congress. The President plans to submit a National Energy Policy Plan to Congress in 1998. Section 801 also states that the President shall "seek the active participation by regional, State, and local agencies and instrumentalities and the private sector through public hearings in cities and rural communities and other appropriate means to insure that the views and proposals of all segments of the economy are taken into account in the formulation and review of such proposed Plan."

A copy of the proposed Comprehensive National Energy Strategy follows this notice.

The hearings are expected to elicit public input on any aspect of the framework, including suggestions for additional detail to accompany the strategies. The five basic goals in the proposed CNES are:

- Goal I. Improve the efficiency of the energy system—making more productive use of energy resources to enhance overall economic performance while protecting the environment and advancing national security.
- Goal II. Ensure against energy disruptions—protecting our economy from external threat of interrupted supplies or infrastructure failure.
- Goal III. Promote energy production and use in ways that reflect human health and environmental values—improving our health and local, regional, and global environmental quality.
- Goal IV. Expand future energy choices—pursuing continued progress in science and technology to provide future generations with a robust portfolio of clean and inexpensive energy sources.
- Goal V. Cooperate internationally on global issues—developing the means to address global economic, security, and environmental concerns.

Participants wishing to speak at the hearings must register on-site. The speaker registry will open one-half hour before each hearing. Although it is not necessary to confirm your attendance in advance, you may notify the Department of your intention to participate by fax or by mail at the address printed above.

Issued in Washington D.C. on February 9, 1998.

Robert W. Gee,

Assistant Secretary for Policy and International Affairs, U.S. Department of Energy.
