

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATIONFinding Regarding the Social Insurance System of Albania

AGENCY: Social Security Administration.
ACTION: Notice of finding regarding the Social Insurance System of Albania.

Finding

Section 202(t)(1) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402(t)(1)) prohibits payment of monthly benefits to any individual who is not a United States citizen or national for any month after he or she has been outside the United States for 6 consecutive months, and prior to the first month thereafter for all of which, the individual has been in the United States. This prohibition does not apply to such an individual where one of the exceptions described in sections 202(t)(2) through 202(t)(5) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402(t)(2)–(5)) affects his or her case.

Section 202(t)(2) of the Social Security Act provides that, subject to certain residency requirements of section 202(t)(11), the prohibition against payment shall not apply to any individual who is a citizen of a country which the Commissioner of Social Security finds has in effect a social insurance system which is of general application in such country and which:

(a) Pays periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, on account of old age, retirement, or death; and
 (b) Permits individuals who are United States citizens but not citizens of that country and who qualify for such benefits to receive those benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, while outside the foreign country regardless of the duration of the absence.

The Commissioner of Social Security has delegated the authority to make such a finding to the Associate Commissioner for International Policy. Under that authority, the Associate Commissioner for International Policy has approved a finding that Albania, as of October 1, 1993, has a social insurance system of general application which:

(a) Pays periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, on account of old age, retirement, or death; and
 (b) Permits United States citizens who are not citizens of Albania and who qualify for the relevant benefits to receive those benefits, or their actuarial equivalent, while outside of Albania, regardless of the duration of the absence of these individuals from Albania.

Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that Albania has in effect, as of October 1, 1993, a social insurance system which meets the requirements of section 202(t)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402(t)(2)).

This is our first finding under section 202(t) of the Social Security Act for Albania. For the period September 7, 1948 through September 29, 1992, U.S. Treasury Department regulations prohibited sending U.S. Government checks (including U.S. Social Security checks) to, or on behalf of, individuals in Albania. These restrictions were lifted on September 30, 1992.

However, prior to October 1, 1993, the date that the People's Assembly Law on Social Insurance in the Albanian Republic, Act No. 7703, entered into force, there was no provision for the payment of benefits to U.S. citizens residing outside Albania as required under section 202(t)(2)(B) of the Social Security Act. Consequently, payment of benefits to Albanian citizens under the social insurance exception was not possible until the new law went into effect.
