Notice of Meeting

AGENCY: National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

ACTION: Notice of meeting.

SUMMARY: Announcement of a public meeting to receive testimony concerning planning for how and where in the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial, Washington, D.C., permanent recognition of President Roosevelt's disability should be achieved.

DATES: March 9, 1998, 10:00 am.

ADDRESSES: National Capital Planning Commission, 801 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Third Floor, Washington, D.C.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. John G. Parsons, Associate Superintendent, Stewardship and Partnerships, National Capital Region, at 202-619-7025. Written comments can be addressed to Mr. Parsons at National Park Service, National Capital Region, 1100 Ohio Drive, SW., Room 220, Washington, DC 20242. Comments must be received by March 27, 1998.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to Public Law 105-29, the Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Committee and the National Park Service will conduct a public meeting to receive testimony on an addition to the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial to recognize President Roosevelt's disability. On July 24, 1997, President William Clinton signed into law a Joint Resolution which directs the Secretary of the Interior to "plan for the design and construction of an addition of a permanent statue, bas-relief, or other similar structure to the [Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial] to provide recognition of the fact that President Roosevelt's leadership in the struggle by the United States for peace, well-being, and human dignity was provided while the president used a wheelchair." The National Park System Advisory Board established the Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Committee to help the Board advise the Secretary on achieving appropriate recognition. The Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Committee will make its recommendations to the full Board, which will then provide the advice the Secretary has requested.

The Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Committee is chaired by Dr. Holly A. Robinson, Historian and Vice Chair of the National Park System Advisory Board. The other members of the Committee are: Hugh Gallagher, author of FDR's Splendid Deception and noted disability rights activist; Karl Komatsu, historic architect and board member of the National Trust for Historic Preservation; Laurie D. Olin, landscape architect and Adjunct Professor, University of Pennsylvania; Michael R. Deland, Vice Chairman of American Flywheel Systems, Inc., and Chairman of the Board of the National Organization on Disability; David Dillon, author, architecture critic and Loeb Fellow at Harvard University; and James Roosevelt, Jr., public policy leader and grandson of President Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt.

The Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Committee has met on three occasions with the memorial designer, Mr. Lawrence Halprin, to become familiar with the memorial and his design philosophy. As a result of these deliberations toward integrating an addition into the highly acclaimed memorial design, the Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Committee and the National Park Service have determined that the next step in the planning process is to seek public opinion concerning the placement of an addition at the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial which will recognize President Roosevelt's disability.

The Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Committee and the National Park Service will conduct a public meeting on March 9, 1998, in the Commission Meeting Room at the National Capital Planning Commission, Third Floor, 801 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. beginning at 10:00 am.

The intent of the meeting is to receive public testimony concerning how and where in the existing memorial recognition of President Roosevelt's disability should occur. Those who wish to register in advance to speak can do so by calling the Office of Stewardship and Partnerships of the National Capital Region of the National Park Service at 202-619-7025 until 4:00 on Friday, March 6, 1998. Those who register in advance will be called to testify at the meeting in the order of their registration. Those who register at the meeting will be called in turn in the order of their registration. Speakers are requested to limit their remarks to a 3-minute time period. Written testimony will be accepted at the meeting. For further information contact Mr. John G. Parsons, Associate Superintendent, Stewardship and Partnerships, National Capital Region, at 202-619-7025.
