posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of January 16, 1998 (63 FR 2693). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on January 27, 1998, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determinations in these investigations to the Secretary of Commerce on February 20, 1998. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3086 (February 1998), entitled "Certain Preserved Mushrooms from Chile, China, India, and Indonesia: Investigations Nos. 731-TA-776-779 (Preliminary)."

This action is authorized under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, sections 201-03, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 3721-23 (1994).

Background

The National Institute of Justice is seeking applications for management teams interested in directing Arrestee Drug Abuse Monitoring (ADAM) sites, formerly known as the Drug Use Forecasting (DUF) system. Management of each of the original 23 DUF sites is being recomputed, thus all current site-management teams desiring to remain under ADAM must submit applications.

The scope of work required in directing the 23 ADAM sites will include, but not be limited to, quarterly data collection waves consisting of administering a short interview, collecting urine samples from recent arrestees, and occasionally administering supplemental questionnaires. Data collection targets are 250 adult male cases and 100 adult female cases and may include up to 100 juvenile male cases and 50 juvenile female cases.

All applications must provide: Discussion of qualifications of key personnel; narrative explaining the proposed technical approach to the scope of work; budget estimate (form provided); discussion of potential outreach activities; and inventory of lock-up facilities where interviewing may need to take place.

This solicitation applies only to the 23 sites that were part of the original DUF system; it does not apply to the 12 sites added to ADAM in FY 1998 or to other prospective sites. Applicants selected under this solicitation will enter in to subcontracts with the ADAM data and management contractor and these subcontracts will be renewable annually subject to performance.
