

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

The proposed collection is listed below:

(1) Type of information collection. New collection.

(2) The title of the form/collection. Community Policing to Combat Domestic Violence Progress Reports.

(3) The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection. Form: 1103-0039. Office of Community Oriented Policing Services, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract. Primary: State, Local or Tribal Governments. Other: None.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond. 336 respondents at 8 hours per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection. 2,688 annual burden hours.

Public comment on this proposed information collection is strongly encouraged.

Dated: March 16, 1998.
