Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Winslow Plant Winslow, ME; Including Leased Workers of Northeast Laboratories, Winslow, ME; Including Workers of Guards-Mark, Boston, MA and Valmet Audiomotion, Westbrook, ME; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 27, 1997, applicable to all workers of Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Winslow Plant located in Winslow, Maine. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 30, 1997 (62 FR 51152).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce bath tissue. New information provided by the State shows that some workers separated from employment at Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Winslow Plant, Winslow, Maine had their wages reported under two separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax accounts, at Guards-Mark, Boston, Massachusetts and Valmet Audiomotion, Westbrook, Maine. Workers from Guards-Mark provided security detail for the Winslow, Maine facility. Workers from Valmet Audiomotion provided computer support services to the Winslow Maine facility of Kimberly-Clark Corporation. Worker separations occurred at Guards-Mark and Valmet Audiomotion as a result of worker separations at Kimberly-Clark Corporation.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Kimberly-Clark Corporation adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-33,670 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of the Winslow Plant of Kimberly-Clark Corporation, located in Winslow, Maine, and leased workers of Northeast Laboratories, Winslow, Maine engaged in employment related to environmental testing for the production of bath tissue produced by the Winslow Plant of Kimberly-Clark Corporation located in Winslow, Maine and all workers of Guards-

Mark, Boston, Massachusetts that provided security detail for the Winslow Plant of Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Winslow, Maine and all workers of Valmet Audiomotion, Westbrook, Maine that provided computer support services for the production of bath tissue produced by the Winslow Plant of Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Winslow, Maine who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 23, 1996 through August 27, 1999 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 20th day of March, 1998.

L.A. Manufacturing, Incorporated, Livingston, Tennessee; Notice of Revised Determination on Reopening

On January 20, 1998, the Department issued a Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, applicable to workers and former workers of L.A. Manufacturing, Incorporated, located in Livingston, Tennessee. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 18, 1998 (63 FR 8210).

By letter of February 11, 1998, the company requested administrative reconsideration regarding the Department's denial of trade adjustment assistance for workers of the subject firm. Based on new information provided by L.A. Manufacturing officials, the Department reopened the petition investigation.

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination based on the finding that the "contributed importantly" test of the Group Eligibility Requirements of the Trade Act was not met for workers at the subject firm. The workers produce ladies' and men's denim jeans.

Sales and employment at L.A. Manufacturing declined from 1995 to 1996.

On reopening, a review of United States imports of men's trousers, slacks, jeans and pants, reveals that imports increased absolutely and relative to domestic shipments from 1995 to 1996 and in the twelve months through September 1997 compared to the twelve months through September 1996. The ratio of imports to domestic shipments

(I./S.) was more than 100 percent in the twelve months ending September 1997.

United States imports of women's and girls' slacks and shorts increased absolutely and relative to domestic shipments from 1995 to 1996; the I./S. ratio was more than 100 percent. Imports continued to increase in the twelve months through September 1997 compared to the same time period a year earlier; the I./S. ration is not available but is estimated to be more than 100 percent.

Conclusion

After careful consideration of the new facts obtained on reopening, it is concluded that increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with jeans produced by the subject firm contributed importantly to the decline in sales and to the total or partial separation of workers of the subject firm. In accordance with the provisions of the Trade Act of 1974, I make the following revised determination:

All workers of L.A. Manufacturing, Incorporated, Livingston, Tennessee, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 5, 1996, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC this 20th day of March 1998.
