Developing and implementing a single HACCP plan for a single product often would be more efficient and cost effective than producing two plans (one for slaughter and one for processing). In many cases, FSIS inspection personnel will be able to more efficiently and effectively review a single HACCP plan that covers all of the processing (including slaughter) within a meat or poultry establishment.

BILLING CODE 3410-DM-P

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

10 CFR Parts 1, 2, 4, 7, 9, 15, 16, 76, and 110

RIN 3150-AF89

Statement of Organization and General Information; Minor Amendments

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Nuclear Regulatory Commission is revising its statement of organization and general information to reflect the creation of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO) and the Office of the Chief Information Officer (OCIO), the reorganization of the Office of Administration (ADM), and other minor changes. These amendments are necessary to inform the public of administrative changes within the NRC.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 1, 1998.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

David L. Meyer, Chief, Rules and Directives Branch, Office of Administration, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555-0001, telephone (301) 415-7162, e-mail: dlm1@nrc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On January 5, 1997, the Commission announced the creation of the OCFO and the OCIO. These offices report directly to the Chairman. These offices were established pursuant to the Chief Financial Officers Act of 1990 and the Clinger-Cohen Act of 1996, respectively. The responsibilities and functions of their predecessor organizations that reported to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO) were transferred to these offices, respectively. Accordingly, the Office of the Controller and the Office of Information Resources Management were abolished. In addition, publications, graphics, printing, and Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act functions were transferred from the Office of Administration (ADM) to the OCIO.

This final rule also notes the name change of the Office of Personnel to the Office of Human Resources and other minor administrative changes.

Because these amendments deal with agency practice and procedures, the notice and comment provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act do not apply pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A). The amendments are effective upon publication in the Federal Register. Good cause exists to dispense with the usual 30-day delay in the effective date because these amendments are of a minor and administrative nature, dealing with the agency's reorganization.

Environmental Impact: Categorical Exclusion

The NRC has determined that this final rule is the type of action described in categorical exclusion 10 CFR 51.22 (c) (2). Therefore, neither an environmental impact statement nor an environmental assessment has been prepared for this final rule.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement

This final rule contains no information collection requirements and, therefore, is not subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The OCC comprehensively revised its regulations in 12 CFR part 32 in 1995 (60 FR 8526 (February 15, 1995)), as part of its Regulation Review Program (Program) to update and streamline the regulation and eliminate requirements that imposed inefficient and costly regulatory burdens on national banks. These amendments to part 32 included changing the definition of "loans and extensions of credit" to exempt, under certain circumstances, additional funds advanced for the payment of maintenance and operating expenses necessary to preserve the value of real property securing a loan. See 12 CFR 32.2(j)(2)(i). In addition, the amendments changed the definition of "capital and surplus" to allow a national bank, in most instances, to calculate its lending limit based on information contained in the bank's most recent quarterly Consolidated Report of Condition and Income (Call Report). See id. § 32.4.

Some of the part 32 changes prompted requests for: (a) further clarification and extension of the exemption for funds advanced to preserve and maintain collateral to loans secured by personal property as well as loans secured by real property; and (b) clarification of the date on which a national bank must recalculate its capital and surplus. In response to these requests, the OCC published a notice of proposed rulemaking (proposal) on July 17, 1996 (61 FR 37227), to address these issues. The proposal also made several technical changes designed to improve part 32 without changing its substance. The proposal reflected the OCC's continuing commitment to assess the effectiveness of the rules it has revised under the Program and to make further changes where necessary to improve a regulation.

Comments Received and Changes Made

The OCC received 11 comments on the proposal, six of which came from banks and bank holding companies and five from trade associations. Most commenters supported the OCC adding increased flexibility and clarity to the lending limits regulation. Commenters generally commended the OCC's efforts, while some commenters offered alternatives to certain of the proposed changes.

Upon further review, the OCC has decided not to adopt the proposal's exemption from the lending limit for additional funds advanced to preserve and maintain collateral to loans secured by personal property. However, the OCC has adopted the proposal's other changes.

Discussion

Exemption for Funds Advanced to Protect Personal Property Collateral (§ 32.2(j))

Under § 32.2(j)(2)(i), additional funds advanced for the benefit of a borrower by a bank for the payment of certain expenses necessary to preserve the value of real property are not considered to be a "loan or extension of credit" for purposes of 12 U.S.C. 84 and part 32 under certain circumstances. The OCC proposed amending § 32.2(j)(2)(i) to include advances to protect personal property collateral and to treat any additional advance to protect collateral—whether personal property or real property—the same.

Commenters supported this proposed amendment. Upon further review, however, the OCC has determined that it would be inappropriate to adopt the change to § 32.2(j)(2)(i) at this time. As a result of its continued monitoring of credit quality standards, the OCC is concerned that credit standards have been relaxed since the proposed rule was published. Accordingly, the OCC has decided it would not be appropriate at this time to modify this prudential
