

were made. On December 24, 1997, movants supplemented their joint motion by filing a revised proposed consent order. The IA responded that he would now support termination of the investigation on the basis of the revised consent order and consent order stipulation.

On March 5, 1998, the presiding administrative law judge ("ALJ") issued an ID (Order No. 6) terminating the investigation on the basis of the revised consent order. None of the parties, including the IA, filed a petition to review the ID.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and Commission rule 210.42, 19 CFR 210.42. Copies of the ALJ's ID and all other nonconfidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-2000. ## INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 337-TA-399]

In the Matter of Certain Fluid-Filled Ornamental Lamps; Notice of Commission Decision Not To Review an Initial Determination Terminating the Investigation in Its Entirety and Issuance of Consent Orders

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has decided not to review the presiding administrative law judge's (ALJ's) initial determination (ID) terminating the above-captioned investigation as to every respondent on the basis of a consent order, a settlement agreement, or withdrawal of the complainant's allegations against the respondent. The investigation is therefore terminated in its entirety.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: P. N. Smithey, Esq., Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, telephone 202-205-3061. General information concerning the Commission also may be obtained by accessing its Internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>). Hearing-impaired individuals can obtain information concerning this matter by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal at 202-205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On May 22, 1997, Haggerty Enterprises, Inc., filed a complaint and a motion for temporary relief with the Commission alleging violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain fluid-filled ornamental lamps that infringe U.S. Trademark Registration Nos. 1,611,140 and/or 852,625. The Commission provisionally accepted the motion for temporary relief for further processing and instituted the investigation on July 1, 1997. Eleven firms were named as respondents: Lipan Industrial Co., Ltd.; Gemmy Industries Corporation; Kay-Bee Center Inc.; Walgreen Company; Six G's Inc.; Adams Apple Distributing Company LP; A-Mic Corporation; Charlotte Buchanan, d/b/a Glamorama; Fortune Products, Inc.; J.J.M. Novelties; and Original Lighting Inc. See 62 FR 35525 (July 1, 1997).

Between July 23 and August 4, 1997, complainant Haggerty moved for termination of the investigation as to every respondent. Termination as to respondents Six G's, Charlotte Buchanan, Original Lighting, Gemmy, Kay-Bee, and Walgreen was sought on the basis of consent orders. (Motions Nos. 399-2 through 399-4 and 399-8.) The motions for termination as to respondents J.J.M., Adams Apple, A-Mic, and Fortune were based on Haggerty's withdrawal of its section 337 allegations against those respondents. (Motions Nos. 399-5 and 399-6.) Termination as to respondent Lipan was sought on the basis of a settlement agreement. (Motion No. 399-7.)

On August 13, 1997, the Commission investigative attorney filed a response supporting the motions.

On March 4, 1998, the ALJ issued the ID granting the motions and ordering termination of the investigation in its entirety (including the temporary relief proceeding). No party petitioned for review of the ID pursuant to 19 CFR 210.43(a).

The Commission's action was taken under the authority of 19 U.S.C. 1337(c) and 19 CFR 210.42.

All nonconfidential documents filed in the investigation—including the ID, the motion for termination as to each respondent, the consent orders and the settlement agreement, and the Commission investigative attorney's response to the motions for termination—are or will be available for public inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Commission's Office of the Secretary, Dockets Branch, 500 E Street, SW., Room 112, Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-2000.

Issued: March 24, 1998.

By order of the Commission.
