

Conditions

TUV Rheinland of North America, Inc. must also abide by the following conditions of the recognition, in addition to those already required by 29 CFR 1910.7:

OSHA shall be allowed access to TUV's facility and records for purposes of ascertaining continuing compliance with the terms of its recognition and to investigate as OSHA deems necessary;

If TUV has reason to doubt the efficacy of any test standard it is using under this program, it shall promptly inform the test standard developing organization of this fact and provide that organization with appropriate relevant information upon which its concerns are based;

TUV shall not engage in or permit others to engage in any misrepresentation of the scope or conditions of its recognition. As part of this condition, TUV agrees that it will allow no representation that it is either a recognized or an accredited Nationally Recognized Testing Laboratory (NRTL) without clearly indicating the specific equipment or material to which this recognition is tied, or that its recognition is limited to certain products;

TUV shall inform OSHA as soon as possible, in writing, of any change of ownership or key personnel, including details;

TUV will continue to meet the requirements for recognition in all areas where it has been recognized; and TUV will always cooperate with OSHA to assure compliance with the spirit as well as the letter of its recognition and 29 CFR 1910.7.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 27 day of March, 1998.

Charles N. Jeffress,

Assistant Secretary.

NATIONAL COMMISSION ON LIBRARIES AND INFORMATION SCIENCE

U.S. Participation in International Library and Information Policy Forums

The purpose of the collection is to obtain information from private individuals and organizations who regularly participate in international forums and other kinds of activities where library and information policy issues and concerns that are of major importance to the U.S. are previewed, discussed, debated, resolved and acted upon, including the promulgation of laws, rules, regulations, policies, standards, guidelines and other policy implementation instruments.

The most likely respondents to this collection include university faculty, researchers, public and private librarians, other kinds of information professionals, corporate representatives in the library and information field, experts and consultants, and government agencies whose missions embrace this field such as NTIA, NTIS, the Library of Congress, CRS, and so forth.

Number of Respondents: 1,000.

Frequency of Response: 1.

Average Burden Per Response: 30 minutes.

Estimated Annual Burden: 500 hours.

The data collected will be used by NCLIS, major U.S. library and information associations, universities, library and information science schools, government agencies with international missions and programs, and selected private individuals to better plan their participation in such international activities so as to minimize duplication and overlap in these forums, and to sharpen U.S. policy focus.

The data collection is planned for the June-August 1998 timeframe.

Written comments and recommendations regarding this information collection should be sent within 30 days from the date of this publication directly to the U.S. National Commission on Libraries and Information Science, 1110 Vermont Avenue, NW., Suite 820, Washington, DC 20005-3522, Attn: F.W. Horton, Jr., or by fax to (202) 606-9203, or electronically to wh_nclis@inet.ed.gov. For further information, call (202) 606-9200.
