SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), pursuant to the DOE Financial Assistance Rules, 10 CFR 600.8, is announcing its intention to solicit responses for Federally cost-shared collaborative projects that implement innovative approaches to the development of sustainable niche markets for solar water heating systems in the building industry.

ADDRESSES: To obtain a copy of the solicitation, once issued, write to the U.S. Department of Energy, Golden Field Office, 1617 Cole Boulevard, Golden, Colorado 80401-3393, Attention: Beth H. Applicants are encouraged to obtain the solicitation electronically through the Golden Field Office Home Page at <http://www.eren.doe.gov/golden/solicit.htm>. Only written requests for the solicitation or notifications of receipt will be honored.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Through cooperative agreements, DOE is proposing to support business development projects that integrate solar water heating systems into the building sector under provisions of the Energy Policy Act of 1992 (EPAct): Public Law 102-486. It is the goal of DOE to accelerate the establishment of markets for solar water heating systems (SWH) by assisting industry in developing sustainable niche markets within the building sector through Federally cost-shared projects. The projects are intended to focus on market development combined with strategic partnering leading to the integration of solar water heating in both new construction and existing buildings. The ultimate goal of the program is a sustainable market for the SWH products within the conventional residential and commercial building industry without Federal assistance.

Successful applications shall demonstrate an innovative approach for integrating SWH into new construction or existing buildings (e.g., residential or commercial). Respondents are encouraged to form appropriate consortia or other business arrangements with utilities and/or Energy Service Company's (ESCO's), new home construction industry, and solar water heating suppliers or demonstrate a plan for establishing a business arrangement for implementing the solar business venture. Viability of the consortia to develop a sustainable niche market for solar water heating will be a major factor in selecting projects for Federal assistance. Respondents should demonstrate an innovative and cost
