Public Participation

You can make a difference by providing us with your specific comments or concerns about the project. By becoming a commenter, your concerns will be addressed in the EA and considered by the Commission. You should focus on the potential environmental effects of the proposal, alternatives to the proposal (including alternative routes, and measures to avoid or lessen environmental impact. The more specific your comments, the more useful they will be. Please follow the instructions below to ensure that your comments are received and properly recorded:

- Reference Docket No. CP98-266-000.
- Send two copies of your comments to: David P. Boergers, Acting Secretary, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First St., NE, Washington, DC 20426.
- Lable one copy for the attention of the Environmental Review and Compliance Branch, PR-11.1.
- Please mail your comments so that they will be received in Washington, DC on or before May 8, 1998.

Becoming an Intervenor

In addition to involvement in the EA scoping process, you may want to become an official party to the proceeding, known as an "intervenor". Intervenor play a more formal role in the process. Among other things, intervenors have the right to receive copies of case-related Commission documents and filings by other intervenors. Likewise, each intervenor must provide 14 copies of its filings to the Secretary of the Commission and must send a copy to all other parties on the Commission's service lists for these proceedings. If you want to become an intervenor you must file a Motion to Intervene according to Rule 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214) (see appendix 3). Only intervenors have the right to seek rehearing of the Commission's decision. You do not need intervenor status to have your environmental comments considered.

Additional information about the proposed project is available from Mr.

Paul McKee of the Commission's Office of External Affairs at (202) 208-1088.

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket No. RP98-170-000]

Texas Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of GSR Reconciliation Report

April 2, 1998.

Take notice that on March 30, 1998, Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas) tendered for filing a report which compares gas supply realignment (GSR) costs with amounts recovered through the GSR recovery filings. Texas Gas states that this reconciliation filing is being made in accordance with Section 33.3(h) as found in Texas Gas's FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1 and to comply with Article IV, Section 4.5 of the GSR Settlement in Docket No. RP94-119-000, et al., filed on July 12, 1995, and approved by Commission Letter Order issued September 18, 1995.

Texas Gas states that copies of this filing have been served upon Texas Gas's jurisdictional customers, those appearing on the applicable service lists, and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed on or before April 9, 1998. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
