Office of the Secretary

[Docket No. OST-98-3713]

Enforcement Policy Regarding Unfair Exclusionary Conduct in the Air Transportation Industry

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, DOT.

ACTION: Notice extending comment period.

SUMMARY: The Department (or DOT) has issued a proposed Statement of the Department of Transportation's Enforcement Policy Regarding Unfair Exclusionary Conduct in the Air Transportation Industry. On April 10, 1998, the Department published the proposed statement and requested public comment. By this notice, the Department is now extending the due date for comments to July 24, 1998 from June 9, 1998 and the due date for reply comments to September 8, 1998 from July 9, 1998.

DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before July 24, 1998. Reply comments must be submitted on or before September 8, 1998.

ADDRESSES: To facilitate the consideration of comments, each commenter should file eight copies of each set of comments. Comments must be filed in Room PL-401, Docket OST-98-3713, U.S. Department of Transportation, 400 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, DC 20590. Late-filed comments will be considered to the extent possible.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jim Craun, Director (202-366-1032) or Randy Bennett, Deputy Director (202-366-1053), Office of Aviation and International Economics, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Aviation and International Affairs, or Betsy Wolf (202-366-9349), Senior Trial Attorney, Office of the Assistant General Counsel for Aviation Enforcement and Proceedings, U.S. Department of Transportation, 400 Seventh St. SW., Washington, DC 20590.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: DOT published a proposed Statement of the Department of Transportation's Enforcement Policy Regarding Unfair Exclusionary Conduct in the Air Transportation Industry and requested comments on the proposed statement

⁴ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A).

⁵ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(e).

⁶ 17 CFR 200.30-3(a)(12).

(63 FR 17919, April 10, 1998). The proposed policy statement was developed by the Department of Transportation in consultation with the Department of Justice and sets forth tentative findings and guidelines for use by DOT in evaluating whether major air carriers' competitive responses to new entry warrant enforcement action under 49 U.S.C. 41712. The due dates for comments and reply comments were June 9, 1998 and July 9, 1998, respectively.

On May 8, 1998, the Air Transport Association of America (ATA), an association of 22 U.S. airlines and five foreign carriers, filed an emergency petition requesting that the Department extend the time for filing comments by 120 days. The ATA stated that it was filing the petition on an emergency basis because fewer than 30 days remained in the comment period. It claimed that the 60-day time period originally set does not give the parties adequate time to prepare well-reasoned responses to the complicated economic, legal, and policy issues raised in the statement and that in order to participate in a full discussion of these issues, the ATA and its member airlines must consult with economic and legal experts. Since those experts must review studies, reports, and other data that address these issues, the ATA argued that the current 60-day comment period is inadequate.

The ATA also asserted that the Department has failed to identify the research and source material for its proposed statement on a timely basis and therefore an extension of the comment period is necessary. Citing Department rules in 49 CFR § 5.25(a), the ATA likewise stated the Secretary is to grant a petition for extension of time where the petitioner shows that additional time is in the public interest, so long as the petitioner has good cause for the extension and a substantive interest in the proposed action. The ATA claimed that the extension is clearly in the public interest and is consistent with previous similar Department rulemakings involving complex economic issues. Furthermore, as an association representing the entities that the statement would affect, the ATA pointed out that it has an obvious substantive interest.

We have determined that it would be reasonable and in the public interest to give commenters more time for preparing their responses to the proposed statement. While the issues are complex and the statement involves a major policy initiative, we do not agree, however, with the ATA that an extension of 120 days is necessary. The addition of 60 days to the 90 days already established for comments and reply comments provides commenters with a total of 150 days to prepare and provide remarks—an amount of time that we find is sufficient to balance the needs for an adequate comment period while not unnecessarily delaying the Department's initiative for promoting competition and protecting consumers. We will therefore give commenters an additional 60 days to prepare their comments and reply comments.

Specifically, the due date for comments will be extended to July 24, 1998 from June 9, 1998 and the due date for reply comments will be extended to September 8, 1998 from July 9, 1998. (Since the actual addition of 60 days results in a due date for reply comments of September 7, 1998—a Federal holiday, the due date for reply comments was extended to September 8, 1998.)

Issued in Washington, DC, on May 18, 1998, under authority delegated by 49 CFR 1.56(a).

Charles A. Hunnicutt,

Assistant Secretary for Aviation and International Affairs.
