Notice of Intent to Repatriate Cultural Items from Arizona in the Possession of the Arizona State Museum, Tucson, AZ

AGENCY: National Park Service

ACTION: Notice

Notice is hereby given under the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act, 43 CFR 10.10 (a)(3), of the intent to repatriate cultural items from Arizona in the possession of the Arizona State Museum, Tucson, AZ which meets the definition of "objects of cultural patrimony" under Section 2 of the Act.

The cultural items consist of four wooden ceremonial standards, four wooden ceremonial hoops, and ceremonial bundle.

Prior to 1943, these cultural items were removed from a crevice in rocks on the San Carlos Apache Reservation without permission by person(s) unknown. In 1943, these cultural items were donated to the Kinishba Museum by Mr. Sam Duvall. In 1969, these cultural items were transferred to the Arizona State Museum.

Consultation with representatives of the San Carlos Apache Tribe has indicated that these cultural items were removed from tribal lands without permission of the San Carlos Apache Tribe. Further, representatives of the San Carlos Apache Tribe state that these are items which have ongoing traditional and cultural importance central to the culture itself and could not have been conveyed or alienated by any individual.

Officials of the Arizona State Museum have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(4), these nine cultural items have ongoing historical, traditional, and cultural importance central to the tribe itself, and could not have been alienated, appropriated, or conveyed by any individual. Officials of the Arizona State Museum have also determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between these items and the San Carlos Apache Tribe of the San Carlos Reservation.

This notice has been sent to officials of the San Carlos Apache Tribe of the San Carlos Reservation, the Yavapai-Apache Nation of the Camp Verde Indian Reservation, the Fort McDowell Mohave-Apache Indian Community of the Fort McDowell Indian Reservation, the Tonto Apache Tribe, and the White Mountain Apache Tribe of the Fort Apache Reservation. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these objects should contact Dr. Gwinn Vivian, Acting Repatriation Coordinator, Arizona State Museum, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ 85721; telephone: (520) 621-4500 before July 8, 1998. Repatriation of these objects to the San Carlos Apache Tribe of the San Carlos Reservation may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

Dated: June 2, 1998.
