

Singapore, September 11; Manila, September 12-16; and Bangkok, September 16-19. The program for the mission includes embassy briefings on the commercial/economic environment, meetings with potential buyers, agents, distributors and strategic alliance partners, and engagements with Asian ministers and business leaders as well as American business executives based in Southeast Asia.

Trade Mission Goals

The goals of the trade mission are to:

- (1) Boost U.S. high-technology exports and market share in Southeast Asia;
- (2) Establish and expand business relations between U.S. executives and host-country government and industry leaders;
- (3) Highlight U.S. leadership and competitiveness in high-technology sectors;
- (4) Identify new and upcoming commercial high-technology opportunities in the region;
- (5) Achieve greater transparency and fairness in host-country procurement and purchasing decisions; and
- (6) Demonstrate high-visibility U.S. support for the Southeast Asian economies recovering from the recent economic downturn.

Criteria for Participation

The recruitment and selection of private sector participants in this mission will be conducted according to the Statement of Policy Governing Department of Commerce Overseas Trade Missions announced by Secretary William Daley on March 3, 1997. Company participation will be determined on the basis of:

- (1) Relevance of the company's business line to the trade mission's goals;
- (2) Potential for sales to the selected high-technology sectors in the target countries;
- (3) Timeliness of company's completed application and payment of the participation fee;
- (4) Certification that the company's product or service is manufactured or produced in the United States, or, if manufactured/produced outside the United States, the product/service is marketed under the name of a U.S. firm and has U.S. content representing at least 51 percent of the value of the finished product or service.

Any partisan political activities of an applicant, including political contributions, will be entirely irrelevant to the selection process. Third parties may nominate or endorse potential applicants, but companies that are nominated or endorsed must themselves submit an application to be eligible for consideration. Referrals from political organizations will not be considered.

Costs

The fee to participate in the trade mission is $5,500 per person. Each additional person from the same company costs $500. This fee does not cover travel or lodging expenses.
