SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On February 27, 1998, the Department of Housing and Urban Development published a statement of policy regarding disclosure of mortgage loan sales information (63 FR 10031). The February, 1998, notice set forth the Department's policy pertaining to the release of records regarding those bids that the Department or its contractors had received to date under its mortgage loan sale program. The notice stated that, when requested to provide records pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), the Department would produce relevant records in its files including, where available: (1) All potential bidders receiving bid materials; (2) all successful bidders and their successful bids and the mortgage loans attributable to such bids; (3) all unsuccessful bidders and their unsuccessful bids and the mortgage loans attributable to such bids; (4) the aggregate proceeds the Department received from the sale; and (5) the aggregate number of bidders.

This notice serves as the business submitter notice authorized by 24 CFR 15.54 of the Department's FOIA regulations. The purpose of this notice is to provide bidders the opportunity to object to disclosure of their bids under the FOIA. Bidders shall have 10 working days from the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register to provide the Department a detailed written statement of their objections to disclosure of the bid information under the FOIA. Such statement shall specify all grounds for withholding the information and shall demonstrate why the bid information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is privileged or confidential. Conclusory statements that the information would be useful to competitors or similarly conclusory statements generally will not be considered sufficient to justify confidential treatment. Bidders should submit their statements to the agency contact identified in this notice.

The Department will carefully consider a submitter's objections before determining whether to disclose the information. If the Department decides to disclose the information over the objections of the submitters, the Department will advise the submitter in a written notice its intent to disclose the information 10 working days before the specified disclosure date.
