

depainting, chemical milling maskant application, handling and storage of waste. The NESHAP regulation 40 CFR Part 63 subpart GG, was promulgated on September 1, 1996. An amendment to the final rule was published on March 27, 1998. Another amendment to this regulation will be published in July of 1998.

The approximately 2869 affected facilities must comply with the Part 63 General Provisions recordkeeping and reporting requirements including: initial notifications; performance tests; and start-up, shut-down, malfunction reports. In addition there are recordkeeping and reporting requirements specific to the aerospace NESHAP including, semiannual and annual reports.

The Administrator has determined that Hazardous Air Pollutant (HAP) and VOC emissions from Aerospace Manufacturing and Rework Facilities cause or contribute to air pollution that may reasonably be anticipated to endanger public health or welfare.

In order to ensure compliance with the standards promulgated to protect public health, adequate recordkeeping and reporting is necessary. In the absence of such information, enforcement personnel would be unable to determine whether the standards are being met on a continuous basis, as required by the Clean Air Act. Recordkeeping and reporting are mandatory under this regulation. Records must be maintained for 5 years. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations are listed in 40 CFR part 9.

The EPA would like to solicit comments to:

(i) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(ii) evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(iii) enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(iv) minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Burden Statement: The burden estimates for the previously approved ICR were 389,600 hours for cleaning, 574,900 hours for coating application, 15,200 hours for depainting, and 71,400 hours for handling and storage of waste. The March 1998 amendment reduced this burden by approximately 30,000 hours. The upcoming amendment is not expected to have a significant effect on burden. These numbers are for the entire affected industry of which there are 2869 affected sources. This estimate includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.
