

was issued on April 15, 1998 and was published in the Federal Register on May 5, 1998 (62 FR 24826-28).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information received by the company shows that worker separations for those workers engaged in the manufacture of Levi Strauss denims and Dockers have also occurred. Based on this new information, the Department is amending the certification to cover additional workers at the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Levi Strauss and Company, as well as contract workers, who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-33,513 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Levi Strauss and Company at the Wichita Falls Production Plant in Wichita Falls, Texas, the McAllen Production Plant in McAllen, Texas, the Atlanta CF Regional/Sales Office in Atlanta, Georgia, the Johnson City Production Plant in Johnson City, Tennessee, and the San Francisco Office in San Francisco, California who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 13, 1996 through August 7, 1999 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC this 30th day of July, 1998.

Grant D. Beale,

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Sangamon, Incorporated; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration on May 5, 1998, applicable to all workers of Sangamon, Incorporated located in Taylorville, Illinois. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 20, 1998 (63 FR 27750).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of everyday and seasonal cards. New information shows that worker separations occurred at the Moultrie, Georgia and Owensville, Missouri plants of Sangamon, Incorporated. The Moultrie, Georgia and Owensville, Missouri facilities processed customer orders, leafing, die-cutting and embossing for the Sangamon, Incorporated production facility in Taylorville, Illinois.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Sangamon, Incorporated who were adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers of Sangamon, Incorporated, Moultrie, Georgia and Owensville, Missouri.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,199 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Sangamon, Incorporated, Taylorville, Illinois (TA-W-34,199), Moultrie, Georgia (TA-W-34,199A) and Owensville, Missouri (TA-W-34,199B) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 22, 1997 through May 5, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 31st day of July, 1998.

Grant D. Beale,

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

In accordance with Section 250(a), Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273), the Department of Labor issued a Certificate of Eligibility to Apply for NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance on August 7, 1997, applicable to workers of Levi Strauss and Company, located in El Paso, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 17, 1997 (62 FR 48889). The certification was subsequently amended to include the subject firm workers at the El Paso Field Headquarters in El Paso, Texas. The amendment was issued on September 14, 1997 and published in the Federal Register on September 30, 1997 (62 FR 51161). The certification was subsequently amended to include the subject firm workers at facilities in Fayetteville and Harrison, Arkansas and the Dallas, Texas Regional Levi Strauss Office. This amendment was issued on December 9, 1997 and published in the Federal Register on December 19, 1997 (62 FR 66393). The certification was subsequently amended to include the subject firm workers at a facility in Miami Lakes, Florida and temporary and contract workers at various facilities where the subject firm's workers had been previously certified eligible to apply for assistance. This amendment was issued on April 15, 1998 and will be published soon in the Federal Register.

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information received by the company shows that worker separations for those workers engaged in the manufacture of Levi Strauss denims and Dockers have also occurred. Based on this new information, the Department is amending the certification to cover additional workers at the subject firm.

The amended notice applicable to NAFTA-01807 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Levi Strauss and Company at the Wichita Falls Production Plant in Wichita Falls, Texas, the McAllen Production Plant in McAllen, Texas, the Atlanta CF Regional/Sales Office in Atlanta, Georgia, the Johnson City Production Plant in Johnson City, Tennessee, and the San Francisco Office in San Francisco, California who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after July 9, 1996 through August 7, 1999 are eligible to apply for NAFTA-TAA under Section 250 of the Trade Act of 1974.
