

such amounts) will be paid (a) to Scudder Kemper only upon approval of each New Advisory Agreement by a Fund's shareholder or (b) in the absence of such approval prior to the expiration of the Interim Period, to the Fund.

3. Each Fund will promptly schedule a meeting of shareholders to vote on the approval of the New Advisory Agreements to be held within 150 days following the commencement of the Interim Period (but in no event later than March 31, 1999).

4. Applicants will pay the costs of preparing and filing the application and the costs relating to the solicitation of approval of Fund shareholders of the New Advisory Agreements necessitated by the Transaction.

5. Applicants will take all appropriate steps to ensure that the scope and quality of investment advisory and other services provided to the Funds by Scudder Kemper during the Interim Period will be at least equivalent, in the judgment of the Boards, including a majority of Independent Directors, to the scope and quality of services currently provided by Scudder Kemper. In the event of any material change in the personnel providing services pursuant to the New Advisory Agreements, Scudder Kemper will apprise and consult with the Board of the affected Funds, to ensure that the Boards, including a majority of Independent Directors, are satisfied that the services provided will not be diminished in scope or quality.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, under delegated authority.

Margaret H. McFarland,
Deputy Secretary.
