SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Subsection 308(b)(7) of the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigration Responsibility Act, Pub. L. 104-208, dated September 30, 1996, redesignated section 244A of the Act as section 244 of the Act. Under this section, the Attorney General continues to be authorized to grant TPS to eligible aliens who are nationals of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General (or who have no nationality and last habitually resided in that state). The Attorney General may designate a state upon finding that the state is experiencing ongoing armed conflict, environmental disaster, or certain other extraordinary and temporary conditions that prevent nationals or residents of the country from returning in safety.

On August 10, 1992, the Attorney General designated Bosnia-Herzegovina for Temporary Protected Status for a period of 12 months (57 FR 35604). The Attorney General has extended the designation of Bosnia-Herzegovina under the TPS program several times. Last year she extended the designation for an additional 12-month period until August 10, 1998 (62 FR 41420).

Based on a thorough review by the Department of State and Justice of all available evidence, the Attorney General finds that the armed conflict in Bosnia-Herzegovina continues and that, due such conflict, requiring the return of nationals to Bosnia-Herzegovina would pose a serious threat to their personal safety.

This notice extends the designation of Bosnia-Herzegovina under the Temporary Protected Status program for an additional 12 months, in accordance with subsections 244(b)(3) (A) and (C) of the Act. This notice also describes the procedures with which eligible aliens who are nationals of Bosnia-Herzegovina (or who have no nationality and who last habitually
