OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

Renewal of Preferential Treatment for Government Purchases of Products from Caribbean Basin Countries

AGENCY: Office of the U.S. Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Trade Policy Staff Committee (TPSC) is requesting written public comments on the possible renewal of preferences that certain federal government agencies accord in their purchases to eligible products of countries designated under the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act (commonly called the Caribbean Basin Initiative or CBI). Since 1995, these preferences have been granted in one-year extensions, the most recent of which, set out in the Federal Register on October 31, 1997 (62 FR 59014), remains in effect until September 30, 1998. That notice stated that future extension for any CBI countries would be conditioned on individual CBI beneficiaries' participation and cooperation in initiatives and agreements on government procurement in the World Trade Organization (WTO) and the Free Trade Area of the Americas (FTAA) Working Group on Government Procurement. The TPSC seeks public comments in connection with its consideration of a further extension of preferences for products of CBI countries.

DATES: Public comments are due by noon September 23, 1998.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mary Barnicle, Director for Central America and the Caribbean, (202) 395-5190, Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Since 1986 the United States has granted products of CBI countries the same government purchase preference that it grants to products of countries that are members of the Government Procurement Agreement (GPA) (currently administered by the WTO). This preference does not apply to products originating in CBI countries that are excluded from duty-free treatment under 19 U.S.C. 2703(b). A list of CBI beneficiary countries appears as an annex to this notice.
