Russian-U.S. Young Leadership Fellows

ACTION: Request for proposals.

SUMMARY: Subject to the availability of funds, the Academic Exchanges Division, European Programs Branch of the United States Information Agency's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs announces an open competition for an assistance award. Public and private non-profit organizations meeting the provisions described in IRS regulation 26 CFR 1.501(c) may apply to develop a program to administer the recruitment, selection, placement, monitoring, evaluation and follow-on activities for the FY99 Russian-U.S. Young Leadership Fellows. Organizations with less than four years of experience in conducting international exchange are not eligible for this competition.

The Russian-U.S. Young Leadership Fellows Program is a new initiative that will target outstanding Russian and American college graduates who demonstrate leadership skills and an interest in public service. The objective of the program is to enrich the education and experience of young people who show the promise of contributing to the betterment of their own country and to the increased mutual understanding between the two countries. A total of approximately 65-100 Russian-U.S. Young Leadership Fellows (15-20 American and 50-80 Russian) will be sponsored for a one-year, non-degree program in the partner country that will include an academic year of study at an eligible institution of higher education followed by a four-twelve week internship program.
