

and adequate evidence and meet the statutory requirements for initiation. See Initiation Checklist, dated September 8, 1998 (public document on file in the Central Records Unit of the Department of Commerce, Room B-099).

Allegation of Critical Circumstances

The petitioners have alleged that critical circumstances exist. To support their allegation, the petitioners have provided evidence in the petition of a trend of increasing imports recently and the potential for even greater increases in the near future. The petitioners also provided evidence suggesting the person by whom, or for whose account, ERT is imported knew or should have known that the merchandise was being sold at less than fair value and that there was likely to be material injury as a result. In taking into consideration the foregoing, we find that the petitioners have alleged the elements of critical circumstances and supported it with reasonably available information. We, therefore, will investigate this matter further.

Initiation of Antidumping Investigation

Based upon our examination of the petition, we have found that the petition meets the requirements of section 732 of the Act. Therefore, we are initiating an antidumping duty investigation to determine whether imports of ERT from India are being, or are likely to be, sold in the United States at less than fair value. Unless this deadline is extended, we will make our preliminary determination by January 26, 1999.

Distribution of Copies of the Petition

In accordance with section 732(b)(3)(A) of the Act, a copy of the public version of the petition has been provided to the representatives of the government of India. We will attempt to provide a copy of the public version of the petition to the exporter named in the petition.

International Trade Commission Notification

We have notified the ITC of our initiation, as required by section 732(d) of the Act.

Preliminary Determination by the ITC

The ITC will determine by October 2, 1998, whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury by reason of imports of ERT from India. A negative ITC determination will result in the investigation being terminated; otherwise, this investigation will proceed according to statutory and regulatory time limits.

This notice is published pursuant to sections 732(d) and 777(i) of the Act.

Dated: September 8, 1998.

Richard W. Moreland,

Acting Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Notice of Initiation of Countervailing Duty Investigation: Elastic Rubber Tape from India

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 16, 1998.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Todd Hansen or Javier Barrientos at (202) 482-1276 and (202) 482-4207, respectively, Import Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Room 1870, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230.

Initiation of Investigation

The Applicable Statute and Regulations

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the statute are references to the provisions effective January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Tariff Act of 1930 (the Act) by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act (URAA). In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Department's regulations are to 19 CFR Part 351 (1998).

The Petition

On August 18, 1998, the Department of Commerce (the Department) received a petition filed in proper form by or on behalf of Fulflex, Inc., Elastomer Technologies Group, Inc. (Elastomer), and RM Engineered Products, Inc. (RM) (collectively referred to hereinafter as "the petitioners"). Elastomer and RM are both wholly owned subsidiaries of M-Tec Corporation. A supplement to the petition was filed on September 1, 1998.

In accordance with section 702(b)(1) of the Act, the petitioners allege that manufacturers, producers, or exporters of the subject merchandise in India receive countervailable subsidies within the meaning of section 701 of the Act, and that such imports are materially injuring an industry in the United States. The petitioners estimate the countervailing duty rate for Garware to be 50 percent. This figure is based on the findings of the EU in its Imposition of Provisional Countervailing Duty on Imports of Certain Broad Spectrum Antibiotics Originating in India (OJ L 166/17, Commission Regulation (EC) No. 1204/98, June 11, 1998) and the Department's determination in Certain Iron-Metal Castings from India: Preliminary Results of Countervailing Duty Administrative Review (63 FR 37534, July 13, 1998).

The petitioners state that they have standing to file the petition because they are interested parties, as defined under sections 771(9)(C) and (D) of the Act, and they have demonstrated that they are the only producers of ERT in the United States (see "Determination of Industry Support for the Petition" section below).

Scope of the Investigation

For purposes of this investigation, the product covered is elastic rubber tape. Elastic rubber tape is defined as vulcanized, non-cellular rubber strips, of either natural or synthetic rubber, 0.006 inches to 0.100 inches (0.15 mm to 2.54 mm) in thickness, and 1/8 inches to 1 5/8 inches (3 mm to 42 mm) in width. Such product is generally used in swimwear and underwear.

The merchandise subject to this investigation is classified in the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States ("HTSUS") at subheading 4008.21.00. Although the HTSUS subheading is provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the merchandise under investigation is dispositive.

During our review of the petition, we discussed scope with the petitioners to insure that the scope in the petitions accurately reflects the product for which they are seeking relief. Moreover, as discussed in the preamble to our regulations (62 FR 27323), we are setting aside a period for parties to raise issues regarding product coverage. The Department encourages all parties to submit such comments by September 29, 1998. Comments should be addressed to Import Administration's Central Records Unit at Room 1870, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230. The period of scope consultations is intended to provide us with ample opportunity to consider all comments and consult with parties prior to the issuance of our preliminary determinations.

Consultations

Pursuant to section 702(b)(4)(A)(ii) of the Act, the Department invited representatives of the Government of India (GOI) for consultations with respect to the petition. On September 1, 1998, the GOI submitted written comments regarding the programs alleged in the petition. Consultations were held on September 4, 1998. See memorandum to the file regarding the consultations with the GOI, dated September 4, 1998 (public document on file in the Central Records Unit of the Department of Commerce, Room B-099).

Determination of Industry Support for the Petition

Section 702(b)(1) of the Act requires that a petition be filed on behalf of the domestic industry. Section 702(c)(4)(A) of the Act provides that a petition meets this requirement if the domestic producers or workers who support the petition account for: (1) At least 25 percent of the total production of the domestic like product; and (2) more than 50 percent of the production of the domestic like product produced by that portion of the industry expressing support for, or opposition to, the petition.

Section 771(4)(A) of the Act defines the "industry" as the producers of a domestic like product. Thus, to determine whether the petition has the requisite industry support, the statute directs the Department to look to producers and workers who account for production of the domestic like product. The International Trade Commission (ITC), which is responsible for determining whether "the domestic industry" has been injured, must also determine what constitutes a domestic like product in order to define the industry. While both the Department and the ITC must apply the same statutory definition of domestic like product (section 771(10) of the Act), they do so for different purposes and pursuant to separate and distinct authority. In addition, the Department's determination is subject to limitations of time and information. Although this may result in different definitions of the like product, such differences do not
