International Competition Policy Advisory Committee; Request for Input

The International Competition Policy Advisory Committee (Advisory Committee) is seeking input from the business community and other interested parties on the important issues under its consideration. By offering your perspectives as well as the experiences of your business, if relevant, in matters involving trade and competition policy matters, multijurisdictional mergers and enforcement cooperation, you can ensure that your views on these important issues are considered by the Advisory Committee. To this end, the Advisory Committee has prepared an illustrative set of questions, set forth in Section E below.

A. Introduction to the Advisory Committee

In response to the increasingly international nature of antitrust enforcement, the Advisory Committee was formed in late 1997 by Attorney General Janet Reno and Assistant Attorney General for Antitrust Joel I. Klein. It is the third U.S. committee on antitrust matters to the U.S. Department of Justice and the first-ever on international antitrust related matters. The Advisory Committee was established to help tackle the international antitrust problems of the 21st century and thus to provide a medium term policy vision to help guide the U.S. Department of Justice in the years ahead.

The Advisory Committee's membership represents vast experience and expertise from U.S. business, industrial relations, academic, economic and legal communities. It is CoChaired by Dr. Paul Stern, President of The Stern Group and former Chairwoman of the U.S. International Trade Commission, and James F. Rill, Senior Partner at Collier, Shannon, Rill & Scott and former Assistant Attorney General for Antitrust, U.S. Department of Justice. Serving as Executive Director of the Advisory Committee is Professor Merit E. Janow of Columbia University's
