UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY

Educational Advising Program for Students and Scholars From the Middle East and North Africa

ACTION: Notice—Request for Proposals.

SUMMARY: The Office of Academic Programs of the United States Information Agency's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs announces an open competition for an assistance award program. Public and private non-profit organizations meeting the provisions described in IRS regulation 26 CFR 1.501(c) may apply to offer overseas educational advising, orientation and information services for international students and scholars in the Middle East and North Africa concerning opportunities in U.S. higher education. Awards will be made to support local educational information services in Egypt; Gaza; Jordan; Kuwait; Lebanon; Morocco; Syria; Tunisia; Yemen; and West Bank/Jerusalem; and Washington headquarters resource and training support to educational advisers and/or field office directors. These centers will facilitate international educational exchange through overseas educational advising, orientation, and information services for foreign students and scholars seeking information on opportunities in U.S. higher education. This program supports international educational exchange between countries of these regions and the U.S. through direct, field-based services. The assistance award will also include the provision of regional educational advising coordination, support, and training services, to be based in an appropriate location within the region.

The program awards up to $495,000 for a one-year period. Grants awarded to organizations with less than four years of experience in conducting international exchange programs will be limited to $60,000. Grants are subject to the availability of funds for Fiscal Year 1999.

Overall grant-making authority for this program is contained in the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, Public Law 87-256, as amended, also known as the Fulbright-Hays Act. The purpose of the Act is "to enable the Government of the United States to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries * * *; to strengthen the ties which unite us with other nations by demonstrating the educational and cultural interests, developments, and achievements of the people of the United States and other nations * * * and thus to assist in the development of friendly, sympathetic and peaceful relations between the United States and the other countries of the world." The funding authority for the program cited above is provided through the Fulbright-Hays Act.

Projects must conform with Agency requirements and guidelines outlined in the Solicitation Package. The POGI, a document describing Project Objectives, Goals, and Implementation, is included in the Solicitation Package. The POGI provides specific details on the scope of work and budgeting requirements.

ANNOUNCEMENT TITLE AND NUMBER: All communications with USIA concerning this announcement should refer to the Educational Advising Program for Students and Scholars from the Middle East and North Africa and reference number E/ASA-99-10.

DEADLINE FOR PROPOSALS: All copies must be received at the U.S. Information Agency by 5 p.m. Washington, D.C. time on Friday, November 20, 1998. Faxed documents will not be accepted, nor will documents postmarked on November 20, 1998, but received on a later date. It is the responsibility of each applicant to ensure compliance with the deadline.

Approximate program dates: Program should begin on or about January 1, 1999.

Duration: January 1, 1999–December 31, 1999.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Office of Academic Programs; Advising, Teaching, and Specialized Programs Division; Advising and Student Services Branch (E/ASA), Room 349, U.S. Information Agency, 301 4th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20547, phone: (202) 619-5434, fax: (202) 401-1433.
