Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

November 3, 1998.

Take notice that on October 30, 1998, Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets to become effective January 1, 1999:

Fourth Revised Sheet No. 443

Columbia states that this filing is being submitted pursuant to the April 29, 1998, order issued by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) in the Gas Research Institute (GRI) proceedings in Docket Nos. RP97-149-003, et al. 83 FERC ¶61,093 (1998) (Order) approving the Stipulation and Agreement dated January 21, 1998 (Settlement). In the Settlement, Columbia agreed to be a voluntary collection agent for shippers who voluntarily choose to contribute to GRI programs through a "check-the-box" mechanism on billing invoices in addition to the settlement charges, beginning January 1, 1999. The settlement provides that, among other things, effective January 1, 2005, GRI surcharges will no longer be in effect and will reflect declining surcharge rates for the period 1998 through 2003, with adjustments in 2004, if needed. Section 1.7 of the Settlement provides for voluntary funding for the years 1998 through 2004 and that, effective no later than January 1, 2005, all GRI funding and membership will be on a voluntary basis.

Columbia agrees to collect these voluntary amounts submitted by its shippers, and states that these amounts will not be part of Columbia's jurisdictional rates. As part of the "check-the box" procedure, the shipper
