

Commission in its Order Approving Settlement issued April 29, 1998, 83 FERC ¶ 61,093 (1998), and the Order on Rehearing issued June 26, 1998, 83 FERC ¶ 61,331 (1998).

Texas Eastern states that a voluntary contribution mechanism provision has been added to the General Terms and Conditions to allow customers to make voluntary contributions to GRI in such amounts and for such GRI projects or project areas as customers shall specify. Texas Eastern also states that, consistent with the Stipulation and Agreement, this voluntary contribution mechanism is not a pipeline rate, rate provision, or term or condition of service.

Texas Eastern states that copies of the filing were mailed to all affected customers of Texas Eastern and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426 in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Texas Gas Transmission Corporation; Notice of Filing of Tariff Sheets

November 6, 1998.

Take notice that on November 2, 1998, Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas) tendered for filing, as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, with an effective date of January 1, 1999:

Second Revised Sheet No. 189

Texas Gas states that the tariff sheet being filed herein revises Section 22 of Texas Gas's General Terms and Conditions to include language providing invoices have a "check the box" option for shippers to voluntarily contribute funds to the Gas Research Institute (GRI). This provision was established as a part of the Stipulation and Agreement concerning GRI Funding in Docket Nos. RP97-391-000, RP97-149-002 and RP97-3-000 (not consolidated). The instant filing is made in compliance with Commission Order dated April 28, 1998 (83 FERC 61,093) which allows shippers to voluntarily contribute funds in addition to those collected through the GRI surcharge.

Texas Gas states that copies of the tariff sheets are being served upon Texas Gas's jurisdictional customers and interested state commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation; Notice of Site Visit

November 6, 1998.

On November 16 through 19, 1998. The Office of Pipeline Regulation (OPR) staff will conduct an inspection of the route proposed by Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco) for its Market Link Expansion Project. The proposed route and route alternatives, crossing portions of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, will be inspected by helicopter and automobile.

The current itinerary is to conduct a ground inspection on November 16 and 19, and an aerial inspection on November 17 and 18, 1998. If weather conditions preclude an overflight, the inspection will be conducted by automobile only from a location to be determined. Representatives of Transco will accompany the OPR staff. All interested parties may attend, although those planning to attend must provide their own transportation.
