SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

AmeriCorps is the national service program that engages Americans of all ages and backgrounds in meeting critical education, public safety, environmental, and other human needs. Each year, the Corporation for National Service provides funds to programs operated by Indian Tribes and organizations representing Alaska Natives to support projects such as tutoring children, restoring streams and parks, building playgrounds and housing, assisting elders, and serving in health clinics.

The America Reads Challenge is a comprehensive, nationwide effort to create in-school, after-school, weekend, and summer tutoring programs in reading. Working to support the efforts of teachers and parents, this Challenge calls on Americans in all fields—schools, libraries, religious organizations, universities, community and national groups, and cultural organizations, as well as college students, business leaders, and senior citizens—to ensure that every child can read independently by the end of the third grade.

For more information about the activities supported by the Corporation for National Service, visit our web site: <http://www.nationalservice.org>.

The Corporation for National Service has scheduled several workshops and conference calls regarding the application process for AmeriCorps Indian Tribes an America Reads Challenge grant. These sessions are designed to convey to participants an understanding of funding opportunities at the Corporation, tips on preparing a successful application for the 1999 AmeriCorps Indian Tribes and America Reads Challenge grant competitions, and the framework objectives for an AmeriCorps and an America Reads Challenge program.
