FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Sunshine Act Hearing

January 20, 1999.

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission

SUNSHINE ACT HEARING: Notice of the First Hearing In A Proposed Series of Hearings about Telephone Service For Indians On Reservations and Request For Comment From the General Public About Issues Relevant To That Subject.

TIME AND DATE: 8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on January 29, 1999.

PLACE: The Indian Pueblo Cultural Center, 2401 12th Street, N.W., Albuquerque, New Mexico.

STATUS: Chairman William Kennard and Commissioner Gloria Tristani of the FCC will hold a hearing in which representatives of Indian Tribes and Pueblos, officials of the state of New Mexico, and executives from telecommunications service providers will testify and present other evidence concerning the level of telephone service available to Indians on reservations. The hearing will be open to the general public. The Commission requests that all interested parties submit comment on all testimony and evidence received in the hearing, and on all issues arising therein and relevant thereto, including, but not exclusively, the cost of telephone service to remote, low-population areas, the extent and quality of telephone service on reservations, and governmental jurisdiction and sovereignty issues. The Commission requests submission of written comment on all such issues on or before March 31, 1999. See BO Docket No. 99-11.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED. In comparison to other Americans, Indians on reservations have less access even to basic telephone service. The lack of telephone service limits the opportunities available to Indians on reservations. In particular, their access to medical care in emergencies is limited; they cannot reach prospective employers quickly and easily; and they cannot take advantage of commercial, educational, and other information available on the Internet. The FCC seeks to examine the causes for the low level of service and to determine what actions it might take to improve access to telephone service on Indian reservations.
