

Volume No. 1, certain revised tariff sheets in the above captioned docket, bear a proposed effective date of February 1, 1999.

ESNG states that the purpose of this instant filing is to track rate changes attributable to a storage service purchased from Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation (Columbia) under its Rate Schedules SST and FSS, the costs of which comprise the rates and charges payable under ESNG's Rate Schedule CFSS. This tracking filing is being made pursuant to Section 3 of ESNG's Rate Schedule CFSS.

ESNG states that copies of the filing have been served upon its jurisdictional customers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Koch Power Louisiana, L.L.C.; Notice of Issuance of Order

January 20, 1999.

Koch Power Louisiana L.L.C. (KPL) a Delaware corporation created to develop, own and operate a 200 MW electric generating facility in Sterlington, Louisiana, filed an application requesting that the Commission authorize it to sell power at market-based rates, and for certain waivers and authorizations. In particular, KPL requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuance of securities and assumptions of liabilities by KPL. On January 14, 1999, the Commission issued an Order Accepting For Filing Proposed Market-Based Rates (Order), in the above-docketed proceedings.

The Commission's January 14, 1999 Order granted the request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the conditions found in Ordering Paragraph (D), (E), and (G):

(D) Within 30 days of the date of this order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the Commission's blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities by KPL should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214.

(E) Absent a request to be heard within the period set forth in Ordering Paragraph (D) above, KPL is hereby authorized to issue securities and assume obligations and liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issue or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of KPL, compatible with the public interest, and reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

(G) The Commission reserves the right to modify this order to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued Commission approval of KPL's issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities. * * * Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is February 16, 1999.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426.

SEI Wisconsin, L.L.C.; Notice of Issuance of Order

January 20, 1999.

SEI Wisconsin, L.L.C. (SEI Wisconsin), an affiliate of the Southern Company, filed an application for Commission authorization to engage in wholesale power sales at market-based rates in connection with both the construction, ownership and operation of generation and incidental transmission assets as well as the sale of power procured from other sources; these sales will be largely pursuant to a Power Purchase Agreement entered into between SEI Wisconsin and Wisconsin Electric Power Company. SEI Wisconsin also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, SEI Wisconsin requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuance so securities and assumptions of liability by SEI Wisconsin.

The Commission's January 14, 1999 Order granted the request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the conditions found in Ordering Paragraphs (F), (G), and (I):

(F) Within 30 days of the date of this order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the Commission's blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities by SEI Wisconsin should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214.

(G) Absent a request to be heard within the period set forth in Ordering Paragraph (F) above, SEI Wisconsin is hereby authorized to issue securities and assume obligations and liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issue or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of SEI Wisconsin, compatible with the public interest, and reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

(I) The Commission reserves the right to modify this order to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued Commission approval of SEI Wisconsin's issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities * * *.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is February 16, 1999.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426.
