

DATES: Only written comments and/or application for a license which are received by the NIH Office of Technology Transfer on or before May 24, 1999 will be considered.

ADDRESSES: Requests for a copy of the patent applications, inquiries, comments and other materials relating to the contemplated license should be directed to: L. Manja R. Blazer, Ph.D., Technology Licensing Specialist, Office of Technology Transfer, National Institutes of Health, 6011 Executive Boulevard, Suite 325, Rockville, MD 20852-3804; Telephone: (301) 496-7056, ext. 224; Facsimile: (301) 402-0220; e-mail: mb379e@nih.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The TAR system enables the isolation of specific families of genes, individual genes and chromosome fragments as linear or circular YACs. The system provides enrichments that are orders of magnitude higher over previous reports. The circular YACs provide special opportunities for isolation and transfer of cloned material to other organisms. The system includes cloning with and without a yeast origin of replication on the TAR cloning vectors to assure opportunities to clone a wide range of DNAs.

The prospective exclusive license will be royalty bearing and will comply with the terms and conditions of 35 U.S.C. 209 and 37 CFR 404.7 and may be limited to the field of use of providing genomics services to alliance partners. The method and materials of this invention would be available from the NIH to third party organizations for internal research purposes. The prospective exclusive license may be granted unless, within 90 days from the date of this published Notice, NIH receives a written evidence and argument that establishes that the grant of the license would not be consistent with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 209 and 37 CFR 404.7.

Properly filed competing applications for a license filed in response to this notice will be treated as objections to the contemplated license. Comments and objections submitted in response to this notice will not be made available for public inspection, and, to the extent permitted by law, will not be released under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

Dated: February 11, 1999.

Jack Spiegel,

Director, Division of Technology Development and Transfer, Office of Technology Transfer.

BILLING CODE 4140-01-M

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

[Docket No. FR-4442-N-04]

Notice of Proposed Information Collection for Public Comment

AGENCY: Office of Policy Development and Research, HUD.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The proposed information collection requirement described below will be submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act. The Department is soliciting public comments on the subject proposal.

DATES: Comments due: April 23, 1999.

ADDRESSES: Interested persons are invited to submit comments regarding this proposal. Comments should refer to the proposal by name and/or OMB Control Number and should be sent to: Reports Liaison Officer, Office of Policy Development and Research, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street, SW, Room 8226, Washington, DC 20410.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Garland E. Allen, Office of Policy Development and Research, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street, SW, Room 8140, Washington, DC 20410; telephone 202-708-3700, extension 5710 (this is not a toll free number). Copies of the proposed forms and other available documents to be submitted to OMB may be obtained from Mr. Allen.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department will submit the proposed information collection to OMB for review, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35, as amended).

This notice is soliciting comments from members of the public and affecting agencies concerning the proposed collection of information to: (1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of proposed collection of information; (3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

This Notice also lists the following information:

Title of Proposal: Case Study of Section 8 Rental Voucher and Rental Certificate Programs in Alameda County, California.

Description of the need for information and proposed use: The Department is conducting, under contract to the Center for Urban Policy Research at Rutgers University, a case study of the unusually high rate of movement by Section 8 recipients to Alameda County, particularly from the neighboring cities of Oakland and Berkeley, California. Using a case study methodology, the study will determine the neighborhood outcomes for recipients, the reasons for making the move and to document procedures employed by the three housing agencies in administering the Section 8 program which allowed such moves to occur.

Members of the affected public: A sample of Section 8 recipients will be interviewed.

Estimation of the total number of hours needed to prepare the information collection including number of respondents, frequency of response, and hours of response: The researchers will administer a one-time, telephone survey to 300 residents. The interviews are expected to last 30 minutes for a total burden estimate of 150 hours.

Status of the proposed information collection: Pending OMB approval.

Authority: Section 3506 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35, as amended.

Dated: February 12, 1999.

Lawrence L. Thompson,
General Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy Development and Research.
