Employment and Training Administration

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) issued during the period of February, 1999.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Act must be met.

(1) that a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, have become totally or partially separated,

(2) that sales or production, or both, of the firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) that increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Negative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criterion (3) has not been met. A survey of customers indicated that increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-34,948; DuPont Corp., Goose Creek, SC.
 TA-W-35,259; Pittsfield Woolen Yarns Co., Inc., Pittsfield, ME.

 TA-W-35,132; Guilford Fibers, Inc., Gainesville, GA.
 TA-W-35,284N; Pecten Services Co., Houston, TX.

In the following cases, the investigation revealed that the criteria for eligibility have not been met for the reasons specified.

TA-W-35,403; Automotive Products Remanufacturing, McAllen, TX.
TA-W-35,210; Royal Brands International, Inc., Los Angeles, CA.

The workers firm does not produce an article as required for certification under Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-35,412; Willamette Industries, Dallas Sawmill, Dallas, OR.

The investigation revealed that criteria (2) has not been met. Sales or production did not decline during the relevant period as required for certification.

TA-W-35,159; Komatsu Silicon America, Inc., Hillsboro, OR.

The investigation revealed that criteria (1) and criteria (3) have not been met. A significant number or proportion of the workers did not become totally or partially separated from employment as required for certification. Increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have not contributed importantly to the separations or threat thereof, and the absolute decline in sales or production.
TA-W-35,284H; Pecten Geophysical Co., Houston, TX.

The investigation revealed that criteria (1) has not been met. A significant number or proportion of the workers did not become totally or partially separated from employment as required for certification.

Also, pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (Pub. L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA) and in accordance with Section 250(a), Subchapter D, Chapter 2 Title II, of the Trade Act as amended, the Department of Labor presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA issued during the month of February, 1999.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA the following group eligibility requirements of Section 250 of the Trade Act must be met:

(1) that a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, (including workers in any agricultural firm or appropriate subdivision thereof) have become totally or partially separated from employment and either—

(2) that sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely,

(3) that imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased, and that the increases imports contributed importantly to such workers' separations or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

(4) that there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

Negative Determinations NAFTA-TAA

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criteria (3) and (4) were not met. Imports from Canada or Mexico did not contribute importantly to workers' separations. There was no shift in production from the subject firm to Canada or Mexico during the relevant period.

NAFTA-TAA-02760; International Paper Corp., Containerboard Div., Gardiner, Or.

Computalog Wireline Services, Hays, KS; and Operating at Various Locations in the Following States: Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico, Utah; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 14, 1998, applicable to workers of Computalog Wireline Services located in Hays, Kansas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 23, 1998 (63 FR 71166).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The company reports that there have been additional worker separations at computalog wireline Services operations at various locations in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico and Utah. Workers at these locations provide services related to the exploration and production of crude oil and natural gas.

The intent of the Department's certification is to provide coverage to all workers of the subject firm adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to expand coverage to workers of computalog Wireline Services in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, New Mexico and Utah.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,135 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Computalog Wireline Services, Hays, Kansas (TA-W-35,135) and operating at various locations in Texas (TA-W-35,135A), Oklahoma (TA-W-35,135B), Louisiana (TA-W-35,135C), New Mexico (TR-W-35,135D) and Utah (TA-W-35,135E), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 9, 1997 through December 14, 2000, are eligible to apply for worker adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Fruit of the Loom Contract Business Department, Bowling Green, KY; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Revised Determination on Reopening on September 22, 1998, applicable to workers of Fruit of the Loom's Contract Business Department located in Bowling Green, Kentucky. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 9, 1998 (63 FR 54498).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The certification limited the coverage to workers separated from employment on or after January 1, 1998 and before June 30, 1998. Company officials report that a threat of worker separations exists for the Contract Business Department in Bowling Green. Therefore, the Department is amending the certification to extend coverage to workers to the subject firm workers who may become separated from employment through the life of the certification which expires September 22, 2000.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,486 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Fruit of the Loom, Inc., Contract Business Unit, Bowling Green, Kentucky, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 1, 1998 through September 22, 2000, are eligible to apply for worker adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.
