NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATIONTemporary Closing of Reference Service on Certain Textual Records*AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Notice of schedule of closure and reopening of reference services for certain textual records holdings in the National Archives of the United States being relocated from the National Archives Building to the National Archives at College Park.

This notice provides information about the period of time that reference service on certain textual records holdings of the National Archives will be unavailable due to the move of those holdings from their current locations in the National Archives Building in Washington, DC, to new locations in the National Archives at College Park, Maryland. Records are being relocated from the downtown facility to the College Park facility to permit the demolition of Tiers 1-6 of the National Archives Building, as part of a larger renovation project to enhance protection of the Charters of Freedom, improve public and research services, and make the building compliant with the Americans With Disabilities Act.

During the periods shown for the record groups listed on the schedule at the end of this notice, NARA will be unable to provide records for research, or process requests for reproductions (fee orders) or requests for information from these records. Requests received during the periods of suspended service will be returned for resubmission after the date indicated for reopening the records for reference service.

For schedule updates and information on the new location of the records, call: Access Programs (Richard Crawford) at (301) 713-7149, or e-mail: inquire@arch2.nara.gov.

Dated: February 22, 1999.

Michael J. Kurtz,Assistant Archivist for Records Services—Washington, DC.
