Failure to comply with this requirement could result in the Secretary's presumption that reimbursement of antidumping duties occurred and the subsequent assessment of double antidumping duties.

This notice also serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order ("APO") of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with § 351.306 of the Department's regulations. Timely notification of return/destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The text of the Agreement and order appears below.

Dated: March 11, 1999.

Sadye E. Dunn,
Secretary.

Settlement Agreement and Order

1. This Settlement Agreement and Order, entered into between Nordstrom, Inc., (hereinafter, "Nordstrom" or "hereinafter"), a corporation, and the staff of the Consumer Product Safety Commission (hereinafter, "staff"), pursuant to the procedures set forth in 16 CFR 1118.20, is a compromise resolution of the matter described herein, without a hearing or a determination of issues of law and fact.

I. The Parties

2. The "staff" is the staff of the Consumer Product Safety Commission (hereinafter, "Commission"), an independent regulatory commission of the United States government established pursuant to Section 4 of the Consumer Product Safety Act (CPSA), 15 U.S.C. 2053.

3. Respondent Nordstrom is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State Washington with principal corporate offices located in Seattle, WA. Respondent is a fashion specialty retailer selling a wide selection of apparel, shoes, and accessories of women, men, and children.

II Allegations of the Staff

A. Children's Robes

4. In 1996, Respondent sold, or offered for sale, in commerce, approximately 900 style no. G26 100% cotton girls' terry cloth robes.

5s. On or about April 12, 1996, the Commission staff collected from a Nordstrom store in King of Prussia, PA, samples of 100% girls' terry cloth robes, style no. G26. The staff found the robes displayed for sale in the children's sleepwear section of the store.

6. Children's sleepwear means any product of wearing apparel sizes 7 through 14, such as robes intended to be worn primary for sleeping or activities relating to sleeping. Given the design and length of the robes identified above, they are suitable for use for activities related to sleeping. Accordingly, the robes identified above are items of children's sleepwear and, therefore, subject to the Standard for the Flammability of Children's sleepwear, (hereinafter, "Sleepwear Standard"), 16 CFR part 1616, issued under Section 4 of the FFA, 15 U.S.C. 1193.

7. The staff tested samples of the robes identified in paragraphs 4 and 5 above for compliance with the requirements of the Sleepwear Standard. See 16 CFR 1616.3 and .4. The test results showed that the robes violated the requirements of the Sleepwear Standard.

8. On or about June 11, 1996, the staff informed Respondent that the robes identified in paragraphs 4 and 5 above failed to comply with the Sleepwear Standard and requested that it cease sale of the robes and correct future production.

9. Respondent knowingly sold, or offered for sale, in commerce, the robes identified in paragraphs 4 and 5 above, as the term "knowingly" is defined in Section 5(e)(4) of the FFA, 15 U.S.C. 1194(e)(4), in violation of Section 3 of the FFA, 15 U.S.C. 1192, for which a civil penalty may be imposed pursuant to section 5(e)(1) of the FFA, 15 U.S.C. 1194(e)(1).

B. Chenille Sweaters

10. In 1996, Respondent sold, or offered for sale, in commerce, approximately 8,900 style no. 3L89235P women's 90% rayon/10% nylon chenille sweaters.

11. On or about October 21, 1996, the staff collected from a Nordstrom store, in Bethesda, MD, samples of women's 90% rayon/10% chenille sweaters, style no. 3L89235P.

12. The sweaters identified in paragraphs 10 and 11 above are subject to the Clothing Standard for the Flammability of Clothing Textiles (hereinafter, "Wearing Apparel Standard"), 16 CFR Part 1610, issued under section 4 of the FFA, 15 U.S.C. 1193.

13. The staff tested samples of the sweaters identified in paragraphs 10 and 11 above for compliance with the requirements of the Wearing Apparel Standard. See 16 CFR 1610.3 and .4. The test results showed that the sweaters violated the requirements of the Wearing Apparel Standard and, therefore, were dangerously flammable and unsuitable for clothing because of their rapid and intense burning.

14. On or about November 1, 1996, the staff informed Respondent that the sweaters identified in paragraphs 10 and 11 above failed to comply with the Wearing Apparel Standard and requested that it cease sale of the sweaters and conduct a consumer level recall.

15. Respondent knowingly sold, or offered for sale, in commerce, the sweaters identified in paragraphs 10 and 11 above, as the term "knowingly" is defined in section 5(e)(4) of the FFA, 15 U.S.C. 1194(e)(4), in violation of Section 3 of the FFA, 15 U.S.C. 1192, for which a civil penalty may be imposed pursuant to Section 5(e)(1) of the FFA, 15 U.S.C. 1194(e)(1).

III. Response of Nordstrom

16. Respondent denies the allegations of the staff set forth in paragraphs 4 through 15 above. Respondent Nordstrom specifically denies that the children's robes were subject to the Sleepwear Standard. Respondent Nordstrom also specifically denies that it knowingly sold or offered for sale the chenille sweaters described in paragraphs 10 and 11 above in violation of the requirements of the Wearing Apparel Standard.

17. Nordstrom purchased the robes identified in paragraphs 4 and 5 and the chenille sweaters identified in paragraphs 10 and 11 subject to a provision contained in Nordstrom's Purchase Order by which the vendor warranted and represented that such robes and chenille sweaters comply with all applicable governmental regulations, including expressly, the Flammable Fabrics Act and the Consumer Product Safety Act.

18. Respondent Nordstrom intended that the robes described in paragraphs 4 and 5 above be sold as beach cover-ups. The labels specifically noted that the cover-ups were not to be used as sleepwear. The robes did not constitute sleepwear as the term "sleepwear" is defined in 16 CFR 1616.2(a) and, therefore, were not subject to the Sleepwear Standard at 16 CFR Part 1616. Nevertheless, Nordstrom complied with the staff's request that the robes be further modified.

19. Upon notification by the Commission that the chenille sweaters described in paragraphs 10 and 11 above did not meet the requirements of the Wearing Apparel Standard, Respondent Nordstrom immediately ceased all sales of the garment, as well as those garments not identified by the Commission but which were composed of the same fiber content.

20. When notified by the Commission, Respondent Nordstrom promptly and diligently assisted the Commission staff in its efforts to implement recall of the sweaters described in paragraphs 10 and 11 above.

21. Respondent Nordstrom has received no reports of consumer injury resulting from the use of the robes described in paragraphs 4 and 5 above or from use of the sweaters described in paragraphs 10 and 11 above.

IV. Agreement of the Parties

22. The Commission has jurisdiction over Respondent and the subject matter of this Settlement Agreement and Order under the Consumer Product Safety Act (CPSA), 15 U.S.C. 2051 et seq., the Flammable Fabrics Act (FFA), 15 U.S.C. 1191 et seq.; and the Federal Trade Commission Act (FTCA), 15 U.S.C. 41 et seq.

23. This Agreement is entered into for settlement purposes only and does not constitute an admission by Respondent or a determination by the Commission that Respondent knowingly violated the FFA and the Sleepwear and Wearing Apparel Standards.

24. Upon provisional acceptance of this Settlement Agreement and Order by the Commission, this Settlement Agreement and Order shall be placed on the public record and shall be published in the Federal Register in accordance with the procedures set forth in 16 CFR 1605.13(d). If the Commission does not receive any written request not to accept the Settlement Agreement and Order within 15 days, the Settlement Agreement and Order will be deemed to be finally accepted on the 20th day after the date it is published in the Federal Register.

25. Upon final acceptance of this Settlement Agreement by the Commission and issuance of the Final Order, Nordstrom knowingly, voluntarily, and completely waives any rights it may have in this matter (1) to an administrative or judicial hearing, (2) to judicial review or other challenge or contest of the validity of the Commission's actions, (3) to a determination by the Commission as to whether Nordstrom failed to comply with the FFA and the Sleepwear and Wearing Apparel Standards as aforesaid, (4) to a statement of findings of facts and conclusions of law, and (5) to any claims under the Equal Access to Justice Act.

26. In settlement of the staff's allegations, Nordstrom agrees to pay a civil penalty of $150,000.00 as set forth in the incorporated Order.

27. For purposes of section 6(b) of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. 2055(b), this matter shall be treated as if a complaint had issued, and the Commission may publicize the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Order.

28. Upon final acceptance by the Commission of this Settlement Agreement and Order, the Commission shall issue the attached Order incorporated herein by reference.

29. A violation of the attached Order shall subject Respondent to appropriate legal action.

30. Agreements, understandings, representations, or interpretations made outside this Settlement Agreement and Order may not be used to vary or contradict its terms.

31. The provisions of this Settlement Agreement and Order shall apply to Nordstrom and each of its successors and assigns.
