Bureau of Export Administration

Action Affecting Export Privileges; Kiyoyuki Yasutomi

On Tuesday, December 8, 1998, Federal Register published an Order issued by the Bureau of Export Administration (BXA) on December 1, 1998 (63 FR 67644). The Order identifies Kiyoyuki Yasutomi, with an address at M.E.I. Japan, 6F Sanyo Bldg, 1 Maitocho, Shinjuku ku, Tokyo 160 Japan, as a person denied all U.S. export privileges. The reference to "M.E.I. Japan" has caused some confusion in the export community as to the identity of the company listed in Yasutomi's address. To eliminate that confusion, BXA is amending the Order to identify the abbreviation "M.E.I. Japan" listed in the address in both the caption and the text of that Order. Under the Order, Kiyoyuki Yasutomi is the person denied export privileges. The acronym "M.E.I." stands for "Micro Electronics International."

Amendment

In the address in the caption and in paragraph I of the text of the Order of December 1, 1998, "M.E.I. Japan" should read "M.E.I. Japan, also known as Micro Electronics International Japan".

Dated: March 26, 1999.

Final Results of Expedited Sunset Review: Barbed Wire and Barbless Fencing Wire from Argentina

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce

ACTION: Notice of Final Results of Expedited Sunset Review: Barbed Wire and Barbless Fencing Wire from Argentina

SUMMARY: On December 2, 1998, the Department of Commerce ("the Department") initiated a sunset review of the antidumping order on barbed wire and barbless fencing wire from Argentina (63 FR 66527) pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended ("the Act"). On the basis of a notice of intent to participate and substantive comments filed on behalf of the domestic industry and inadequate response (in this case, no response) from respondent interested parties, the Department determined to conduct an expedited review. As a result of this review, the Department finds that revocation of the antidumping order would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping at the levels indicated in the Final Results of Review section of this notice.
