

where this scoping activity will be conducted are listed below—all meetings are scheduled for 7:00–9:00pm. For confirmed details about meeting locations please contact: Superintendent, Death Valley National Park, P.O. Box 579, Death Valley, California, 92328 (telephone (760) 786–3243).

- May 24 in Pasadena, California;
- May 25 in Ridegecrest, California;
- May 26 in Lone Pine, California;
- May 27 in Goldfield, Nevada;
- May 28 in Pahump, Nevada.

During the scoping period a study document—The Timbisha Shoshone Tribal Homeland: A Draft Secretarial Report to Congress to Establish a Permanent Tribal Land Base and Related Cooperative Activities—is available through Death Valley National Park. Topics addressed in the study document and anticipated to be discussed during these meetings include: background information on the government-to-government negotiation process; an historical perspective on the need for a permanent Timbisha Shoshone Tribal land base; identification of criteria used in the study process; the identification of legislative and administrative actions which would be necessary in order to implement the strategies identified to date; and the types and significance of the potential environmental effects, including potential cumulative impacts to wild burros and horses, wildlife, cultural and other natural resource use issues.

Interested individuals, organizations, and agencies are encouraged to provide comments or suggestions. Written comments regarding the Timbisha Shoshone Tribal Homeland proposal must be postmarked no later than June 15, 1999, and should be addressed to the Superintendent, Death Valley National Park (address as noted above). To obtain a copy of the study document or request other background information please contact the Superintendent, Death Valley National Park; the document and current information also are available via the park website (www.nps.gov/deva).

The U.S. Department of the Interior officials responsible for approval are: the Assistant Secretary for Fish, Wildlife, and Parks; the Assistant Secretary for Land and Minerals Management; and the Assistant Secretary for Indian Affairs. If approved, the plan would subsequently be submitted by the Secretary of the Interior to Congress for consideration. If enacted, the National Park Service officials responsible for implementation would be the Superintendent, Death Valley National Park and the Regional Director, Pacific West Region; as well as the State Directors, Bureau of Land Management, California and Nevada; the Assistant Secretary for Indian Affairs; and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Central California Agency. The draft environmental document is expected to be available for public review in late summer or fall, 1999. At this time it is anticipated that the final plan and environmental document are to be completed in spring, 2000.

Dated: April 9, 1999.

John J. Reynolds,

Regional Director, Pacific West.
