Initiation of National Security; Investigation of Imports of Crude Oil and Petroleum Products

AGENCY: Bureau of Export Administration, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of initiation of national security investigation and request for public comments.

SUMMARY: This notice is to advise the public that an investigation has been initiated under section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1862), to determine the effects on the national security of imports of crude oil and petroleum products. Interested parties are invited to submit written comments, opinions, data, information, or advice relative to the investigation to the Bureau of Export Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce.

DATES: Comments must be received by June 3, 1999.

ADDRESSES: Written comments (three copies) should be sent to Bernard Kritzer, Manager, Special Projects, Office of Chemical and Biological Controls and Treaty Compliance, Bureau of Export Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, Room 2093, Washington, D.C., 20230.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Scott Hubinger, Senior Policy Analyst, Office of Chemical and Biological Controls and Treaty Compliance, Bureau of Export Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, (202) 482-3825.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On April 28, 1999, the Department of Commerce initiated an investigation under section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1862), to determine the effects on the national security of imports of crude oil and petroleum products. The findings and recommendations of the investigation are to be reported by the Secretary of Commerce to the President not later than January 29, 2000.

The imported crude oil and refined petroleum products to be investigated include:

- Crude oil, under 25 degrees API
- Crude oil, 25 degrees API or more
- Motor fuel, including motor gasoline, naphtha-type jet fuel, and kerosene jet fuel
- Motor fuel blending components
- Kerosene derived from petroleum, shale oil, or both, except motor fuel
- Naphthas derived from petroleum, shale oil, natural gas, or combinations thereof, except motor oil
- Fuel oils, under 25 degrees API
- Fuel oils, 25 degrees API or more
- Mineral oil of medicinal grade derived from petroleum, shale oil, or both
- Lubricating oils and greases, derived from petroleum, shale oil, or both, with or without additives
- Mixtures of hydrocarbons not specifically provided for, derived wholly from petroleum, shale oil, natural gas, or combinations thereof, which contain by weight not over 50% of any single hydrocarbon compound
- Paraffin and other petroleum waxes
- Petroleum coke
- Bitumen
- Asphaltum, bitumen, and limestone-rock asphalt
- Petroleum gases (natural gas liquids) and other hydrocarbons

This investigation is being undertaken in accordance with part 705 of the National Security Industrial Base Regulations (15 CFR parts 700 to 709) (the "regulations"). Interested parties are invited to submit written comments, opinions, data, information, or advice relevant to this investigation to the Office of Chemical and Biological Controls and Treaty Compliance, U.S. Department of Commerce, no later than June 3, 1999.

The Department is particularly interested in comments and information directed to the criteria listed in § 705.4 of the regulations as they affect national security, including the following:

- (a) Quantity of the article in question or other circumstances related to the importation of the articles subject to the investigation;
- (b) Domestic production and productive capacity needed for those articles to meet protected national defense requirements;
- (c) Existing and anticipated availability of human resources, products, raw materials, production equipment, and facilities to produce these items;
- (d) Growth requirements of domestic industries to meet national defense requirements and/or requirements to assure such growth;
- (e) The impact of foreign competition on the economic welfare of the domestic industry; and

(f) The displacement of any domestic products causing substantial reemployment, decrease in the revenues of government, loss of investment or specialized skills and productive capacity, or other serious effects.

All materials should be submitted with three copies. Public information will be made available at the Department of Commerce for public inspection and copying. Material that is national security classified information or business confidential information will be exempted from public disclosure as provided for by § 705.6 of the regulations. Anyone submitting business confidential information should clearly identify the business confidential portion of the submission. File a statement justifying nondisclosure and reference to the specific legal authority claimed, and provide a non-confidential submission which can be placed in the public file.

Communications from agencies of the United States Government will not be made available for public inspection.

The public record concerning this notice will be maintained in the Bureau of Export Administration's Records Inspection Facility, room 6883, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230, telephone (202) 482-5653. The records in this facility may be inspected and copied in accordance with the regulations published in part 4 of title 15 of the Code of Federal Regulations (15 CFR 4.1 et seq.). Information about the inspection and copying of records at the facility may be obtained from Mr. Henry Gaston, the Bureau of Export Administration's Freedom of Information Officer, at the above address and telephone number.

Dated: April 28, 1999.
