

Therefore, any suggestions from the public, concerned governmental agencies, the scientific community, environmental groups, industry, commercial trade entities, or any other interested party concerning any aspect of this proposed guidance are hereby solicited. We will take into consideration any comments and additional information received and we will announce final guidance after the close of the public comment period and as promptly as possible after all comments have been reviewed and analyzed. The Final FY 1998 and FY 1999 Listing Priority Guidance will remain in effect until publication of the Final FY 1999 and FY 2000 Listing Priority Guidance.

Executive order 12866 requires each agency to write regulations/notices that are easy to understand. We invite your comments on how to make this notice easier to understand, including answers to questions such as the following: (1) Are the requirements in the notice clearly stated? (2) Does the notice contain technical language or jargon that interferes with the clarity? (3) Does the format of the notice (grouping and order of sections, use of headings, paragraphing, etc.) aid or reduce its clarity? (4) Is the description of the notice in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of the preamble helpful in understanding the notice? What else could we do to make the notice easier to understand?

Authority

The authority for this notice is the Endangered Species Act of 1973, as amended, 16 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.

Dated: April 2, 1999.
