[Docket No. RP99-251-001, Docket No. RP99-253-001]

South Georgia Natural Gas Company, Southern Natural Gas Company; Notice of a Request for Limited Waiver of Order No. 587-G

May 24, 1999.

Take notice that on April 1, 1999, South Georgia Natural Gas Company (South Georgia) and Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern), filed a request for a limited waiver of the requirement of Order No. 587-G,<sup>1</sup> to execute an operational balancing agreement (OBA) at their sole point of interconnection in Lee County, Georgia. The pipelines seek to maintain their current allocation procedures at this point.

In Order No. 587-G, the Commission adopted Section 284.10(c)(2)(i)<sup>2</sup> of its regulations, which requires each interstate pipeline to enter into OBAs at all points of interconnection between its system and the system of another interstate or intrastate pipeline. In an order issued on December 17, 1998, in Docket No. RM96-1-012,<sup>3</sup> the Commission established April 1, 1999 as the date by which pipelines are required to comply with this standard.

Petitioners note that during the restructuring process under Order No. 636, certain bundled sales customers on Southern that were ultimately served at delivery points by South Georgia became no-notice customers of Southern under Rate Schedules FT-NN and CSS. Under the provisions of Southern's tariff, no-notice service requires that storage transactions on Southern's system be directly related to deliveries at the specific market area delivery points. As a result, while Southern has one physical interconnection point with South Georgia in Lee County, Georgia, this is not the point to which the South Georgia customers nominate. Instead, Southern shippers who wish to ship on South Georgia make nominations directly to their city-gate on the South Georgia system. Consequently, petitioners argue that breaking this link and allocating volumes under an OBA at the Lee County interconnect would, for all practical purposes, eviscerate no-notice service for the South Georgia shippers on Southern. Further, petitioners note that because of the configuration of South Georgia system, no imbalances are incurred by shippers on South Georgia, thus obviating the need for an OBA at the interconnection.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests with respect to the waiver request must be filed on or before June 7, 1999. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
