

submitted to OMB may be obtained from Mr. Eddins.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This Notice informs the public that the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has submitted to OMB, for emergency processing, an information collection package with respect to participation in the first-ever government-wide customer satisfaction survey to assess the progress made by federal agencies in improving customer service. This emergency processing is essential for the collection of information, as described below, to OMB for review, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35):

(1) Title of the Information Collection Proposal

National Partnership for Reinventing Government Customer Satisfaction Survey. HUD is joining a number of other federal agencies to participate in this government-wide survey.

(2) Summary of the Collection of Information

(a) Potential respondents will be asked to provide information regarding their assessment of HUD's performance in administering programmatic activities, as related to the Real Estate Assessment Center and the Section 8 Financial Management Center.

(b) HUD's participation in this government-wide customer satisfaction survey will result in benchmarking that will allow the Department to compare its work against the "best in the business."

(3) Description of the Need for the Information and Its Proposed Use

The information collection is essential so that HUD can establish benchmarking to improve its service to customers.

(4) Description of the Likely Respondents, Including the Estimated Number of Likely Respondents, and Proposed Frequency of Response to the Collection of Information

The estimated number of respondents for all collections pertaining to this request is 1,000. The proposed frequency of the response to the collection of information is one-time.

(5) Estimate of the Total Reporting and Recordkeeping Burden That Will Result From the Collection of Information

Number of respondents: 1,000.

Total burden hours: 250.

Authority: The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35, as amended.

Dated: May 25, 1999.
