SUMMARY: On January 26, 1999, the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), Employment and Training Administration, (ETA) announced the third round of competitive grants under the Welfare-to-Work (WtW) grant program (64 FR 4010). The announcement described the conditions under which applications will be received under the WtW Competitive Grants program and how DOL/ETA planned to determine which applications to fund. Approximately $240 million was announced as available for WtW competitive grants under the Round Three announcement. This notice is to announce that the amount available for this competition has been reduced to approximately $200 million.
