DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Foreign Claims Settlement Commission

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, Justice.

ACTION: Notice of Privacy Act systems of records.

SUMMARY: The Foreign Claims Settlement Commission of the United States herewith publishes an updated Notice of its Privacy Act Systems of Records. Publication of such notice is required under subsection (e)(4) of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4)). This update is necessary in order to reflect changes in the location of some of the Commission’s records systems, and the deletion of seven systems (Justice/FCSC-2, “Bulgaria, Claims Against (1st Program),” “Justice/FCSC-10,” “Czechoslovakia, Claims Against,” Justice/FCSC-16, “Hungary, Claims Against (1st Program),” “Justice/FCSC-18,” “Italy, Claims Against (1st Program),” “Justice/FCSC-21,” “Panama, Claims Against,” Justice/FCSC-26, “Rumania, Claims Against (1st Program),” and Justice/FCSC-29, “Yugoslavia, Claims Against (1st Program),”) due to the release of the records in those systems to the National Archives for permanent retention. In addition, as part of the review of Privacy Act systems of records mandated by the President’s Memorandum on Privacy and Personal Information in Federal Records of May 14, 1998, the Commission has deleted three other systems (Justice/FCSC-13, “Payroll Records,” Justice/FCSC-14, “General Personnel Records,” and Justice/FCSC-15, “General Financial Records”), based on a determination that the records in those systems were duplicative of records in other systems or otherwise had become superfluous.

 EFFECTIVE DATE: June 10, 1999.

ADDRESSES: 600 E Street, NW, Room 6002, Washington, DC 20579.

Dated at Washington, DC, June 7, 1999.

Judith H. Lock,
Administrative Officer.

BILLING CODE 4410–BA–M

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Maintained on all individuals who filed claims for compensation under the statutes administered by the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Microfilm copies of index cards and computer-generated paper indexes containing names of claimants, claim and decision numbers, date and disposition of claims, addresses and dates of birth.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

5 U.S.C. 301.

PURPOSES:

To enable Commission personnel and interested members of the public to ascertain whether any named individual, corporation, or other legal entity has submitted a claim to the Commission.

SUMMARY:

The information contained in this system of records (except for that pertaining to the system “Justice/FCSC-27: Germany, Holocaust Survivors Claims Against”, described below) is considered by the Commission to be public information which may be disclosed as a routine use to interested persons who make inquiries about the claims program or individual claims therein, including but not limited to Members of Congress or congressional staff, staff of the Office of Management and Budget, other persons interested in the work of the Commission, and members of the news media.

The information contained in this system of records will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget, in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular No. A–19, at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that circular.

A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to a Member of Congress or to a congressional staff member in response to an inquiry of the congressional office made at the request of the individual about whom the record is maintained.

A record, or any facts derived therefrom, may be disclosed in a... proceeding before a court or adjudicative body before which the FCSC is authorized to appear or to the Department of Justice for use in such proceeding when:

i. The FCSC, or any subdivision thereof,

ii. Any employee of the FCSC in his or her official capacity,

iii. Any employee of the FCSC in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee, or

iv. The United States, where the FCSC determines that the litigation is likely to affect it or any of its subdivisions, is a party to litigation or has an interest in litigation and such records are determined by the FCSC to be both relevant and necessary to the litigation and such disclosure is determined by the FCSC to be a use compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

Records were used for the purpose of adjudicating claims of individuals; issuance of decisions concerning eligibility to receive compensation under the Act; notifications to claimants of rights to appeal; and preparation by authorized FCSC personnel of certifications of awards, if any, to the Treasury Department for payment. Names and other data furnished by claimants used for verifying citizenship status with INS.

The information contained in this system of records is considered by the Commission to be public information which may be disclosed as a routine use to interested persons who make inquiries about the claims program or individual claims therein, including but not limited to Members of Congress or congressional staff, staff of the Office of Management and Budget, other persons interested in the work of the Commission, and members of the news media.

Law enforcement: In the event that a system of records maintained by FCSC to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with the responsibility of investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

The information contained in this system of records will be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget, in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular No. A–19, at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that circular.

A record from this system of records may be disclosed as a routine use to a member of Congress or to a congressional staff member in response to an inquiry of the congressional office made at the request of the individual about whom the record is maintained.

A record, or any facts derived therefrom, may be disclosed in a proceeding before a court or administrative body before which the FCSC is authorized to appear or to the Department of Justice for use in such proceeding when:

i. The FCSC, or any subdivision thereof, or

ii. Any employee of the FCSC in his or her official capacity, or

iii. Any employee of the FCSC in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee, or

iv. The United States, where the FCSC determines that the litigation is likely to affect it or any of its subdivisions, is a party to litigation or has an interest in litigation and such records are determined by the FCSC to be a use compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Claim information, including name and address of claimant and representative, if any; date and place of birth or naturalization; nature and valuation of claim, including description of measures of persecution; other evidence establishing entitlement to compensation for claim.

Authority for Maintenance of the System:

Purpose(s):

To enable the Commission to carry out its statutory responsibility to determine the validity and amount of the claims before it.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of the Uses:

Records were used for the purpose of determining the validity and amount of claims; issuance of decisions concerning eligibility to receive compensation under the claims statute and Agreement; notifications to claimants of rights to appeal; preparation of decisions for certification to the Secretary of State for use in diplomatic settlement negotiations with Germany; and preparation of certifications of awards to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment. Names and other information furnished by claimants may be used for verifying citizenship status with the INS. As required by the authorizing statute, the information contained in this system of records will be maintained as confidential information which will be exempt from disclosure to the public.

—Law Enforcement: In the event that a system of records maintained by the FCSC to carry out its functions indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil or criminal or regulatory in nature and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records in the system of records may be referred, as a routine use, to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation or order issued pursuant thereto.

—A record, or any facts derived therefrom, may be disclosed in a proceeding before a court or adjudicative body before which the FCSC is authorized to appear or to the Department of Justice for use in such proceeding when:

i. The FCSC, or any subdivision thereof, or

ii. Any employee of the FCSC in his or her official capacity, or

iii. Any employee of the FCSC in his or her official capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee, or

iv. The United States, where the FCSC determines that the litigation is likely to affect it or any of its subdivisions is a party to litigation or has an interest in litigation and such records are determined by the FCSC to be arguably relevant and necessary to the litigation and such disclosure is determined by the FCSC to be a use compatible with the purpose for which the records were collected.
