NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR LITERACY

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice.

On May 28, 1999, the National Institute for Literacy (NIFL) published a notice requesting comments for the Office of Management and Budget's review of NIFL's Information Collection Request. In that notice, the title and abstract of the notice were inadvertently omitted. The correction should be inserted after DATES, as follows:

Title: Equipped for the Future (EFF) Center for Training, Technical Assistance and Materials Development.

Abstract: The National Institute For Literacy (NIFL) was created by the National Literacy Act of 1991 to provide a national focal point for literacy activities and to facilitate the pooling of ideas and expertise across a fragmented field. NIFL is authorized to carry out a wide range of activities that will improve and expand the system for delivery of adult literacy services nationwide.

For the past four years, the NIFL has been working with a range of partners in states across the country to develop a customer-driven, standards-based, collaborative approach to adult literacy system reform. The EFF standards that have been developed through this effort define the critical skills and knowledge that enable adults to effectively carry out their responsibilities as workers, parents and family members, and citizens and community members. The standards have been developed and refined with the assistance of a broad cross section of literacy and basic skills programs, as well as with the advice and guidance of key stakeholders in the workforce development, family literacy, and civic participation movements in this country. By September of 1999 NIFL will have completed the major development work on the standards and will release a Users Guide designed to introduce key constituencies to the Standards and how they can be used for teaching and learning, program improvement, accountability, and system reform.

The EFF Center for Training, Technical Assistance and Materials Development will work collaboratively and with National Institute for Literacy (NIFL) to assure the effective integration of EFF into on-going adult education, family literacy, welfare-to-work, skill standards voluntary partnerships, and other workforce development systems.

Dated: June 7, 1999.

Sharyn M. Abbott,

Executive Officer, NIFL.
