Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority

This notice amends Part R of the Statement of Organization, Functions and Delegations of Authority of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), Health Resources and Services Administration (60 FR 56605 as amended November 6, 1995, as last amended at 64 FR 16977-80, dated April 7, 1999). This notice reflects the changes in the functional statement in the Bureau of Health Professions, Division of Medicine.

Section RP-20-Function

Delete the functional statement in its entirety and replace with the following:

DIVISION OF MEDICINE (RP4)

Serves as the principal focus with regard to education, practice, and research of medical personnel; with special emphasis on allopathic and osteopathic and podiatric medicine, and closely associated assistants, particularly physician assistants. Specifically: (1) Provides professional expertise in the direction and leadership required by the Bureau for planning, coordinating, evaluating, and supporting development and utilization of the Nation's health personnel for these professions; (2) supports and conducts programs with respect to the need for and the development, use, credentialing, and distribution of such personnel; (3) engages with other Bureau programs in cooperative efforts of research, development, and demonstration on the interrelationships between the members of the health care team, their tasks, education requirements, and training modalities, credentialing and practice; (4) supports and encourages the planning, development, and operation of regionally integrated educational systems; (5) conducts and supports studies and evaluations of physician and podiatric personnel requirements, distribution and availability and cooperates with other components of the Bureau and Agency in such studies; (6) analyzes and interprets physician and podiatric programmatic data collected from a variety of sources; (7) conducts, supports, or obtains analytical studies to determine the present and future supply and requirements of physicians and podiatrists by specialty and geographic location, including the linkages between their training and practice characteristics; (8) conducts and supports studies to determine potential national goals for the distribution of physicians in graduate medical education programs and develops alternative strategies to accomplish these goals; (9) supports and conducts programs with respect to activities, associated with the international migration, domestic training, and utilization of foreign medical graduates and U.S. citizens studying abroad; (10) maintains liaison with relevant health professional groups and others, including consumers, having common interest in the Nation's capacity to deliver health services; and

(11) provides consultation and technical assistance to public and private organizations, agencies, and institutions, other agencies of the Federal Government, and international agencies and foreign governments, on all aspects of the Division's functions.

Section RP-30 Delegations of Authority

All delegations and redelegations of authority which were in effect immediately prior to the effective date hereof have been continued in effect in them or their successors pending further redelegation.

This reorganization is effective upon the date of signature.

Dated June 2, 1999.
