the aboriginal and historic homeland of the Mashantucket Pequot Tribe.

In 1937, human remains representing one individual from Eccleston Site, Mystic, CT were donated to the Peabody Museum from the Department of Archaeology at Phillips Andover Academy in Andover, MA. No known individuals were identified. No associated funerary objects are present.

These human remains were collected in 1922 as part of an expedition by Warren King Moorehead. Museum documentation indicates that Moorehead was specifically investigating Native American burial grounds on this expedition. Museum records indicate the individual was interred sometime during the contact/early historic period (post-1614 A.D.). Oral tradition and historic documentation supports the Eccleston Site as being within the aboriginal and historic homelands of the Mashantucket Pequot Indians.

Based on the above mentioned information, officials of the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(1), the human remains listed above represent the physical remains of one individual of Native American ancestry. Officials of the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between these Native American human remains and the Mohegan Indian Tribe.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Mashantucket Pequot Tribe and the Mohegan Indian Tribe. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these human remains and associated funerary objects should contact Barbara Isaac, Repatriation Coordinator, Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology, Harvard University, 11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge, MA 02138; telephone: (617) 495-2254, before July 16, 1999.

Repatriation of the human remains to the Mashantucket Pequot Tribe and the Mohegan Indian Tribe may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations within this notice.

Dated: June 10, 1999.
