

estuaries of Alabama represent a developmental habitat for juvenile sea turtles. The applicant proposes to: 1) Identify potential foraging areas by conducting sampling surveys, and measuring and tagging all captured turtles, 2) Perform radio tracking on some of the turtles to determine short term movements, home range, and identify foraging areas, 3) Collect samples of fecal and stomach materials in order to identify and document the diets of juvenile turtles, 4) Collect blood samples to estimate of sex ratio. Permit 1201 was issued on June 11, 1999, and expires February 28, 2001.

Notice was published on March 25, 1999 (64 FR 14432), that an application had been filed by NWFSC for a scientific research permit. Permit 1212 was issued to NWFSC on May 26, 1999, and authorizes takes of juvenile SnR sockeye salmon; juvenile, naturally produced and artificially propagated, SnR spring/summer chinook salmon; juvenile SnR fall chinook salmon; and juvenile, naturally produced and artificially propagated, UCR steelhead associated with four studies at the hydropower dams on the Snake and Columbia Rivers in the Pacific Northwest. The goal of Study 1 is to provide up-to-date survival estimates of juvenile salmonids as they migrate past McNary Dam on the Columbia River. The goal of Study 2 is to evaluate the specific trouble areas in the juvenile fish bypass system at Lower Monumental Dam on the Snake River. The goal of Study 3 is to compare the performance of juvenile salmonids tagged with Sham radiotransmitters with juvenile salmonids tagged with passive integrated transponders (PIT) at Lower Granite Dam on the Snake River. The goal of Study 4 is to determine tailrace residence times of radio-tagged hatchery chinook salmon under varying operational conditions at Lower Monumental Dam and to identify spill conditions that utilize the smallest volumes of water to maximize fish passage efficiency at Ice Harbor Dam on the Snake River. The research will provide information that will be used to develop corrective measures to improve juvenile fish passage at the dams. Permit 1212 expires on December 31, 2003.

Notice was published on March 25, 1999 (64 FR 14432), that an application had been filed by NWFSC for a scientific research permit. Permit 1213 was issued to NWFSC on June 3, 1999, and authorizes direct takes of juvenile SnR sockeye salmon; juvenile, naturally produced and artificially propagated, SnR spring/summer chinook salmon; juvenile SnR fall chinook salmon; and adult and juvenile, naturally produced and artificially propagated, UCR steelhead associated with seven studies at the hydropower dams on the Snake and Columbia Rivers in the Pacific Northwest. The goal of Study 1 is to evaluate the extended length bar screen at Little Goose Dam on the Snake River. The goal of Study 2 is to evaluate a prototype separator at Ice Harbor Dam. The goal of Study 3 is to establish biological design criteria for the fish passage facility at McNary Dam. The goal of Study 4 is to evaluate an orifice shelter, an outlet-flow control device, and methods of debris control at McNary Dam. The goal of Study 5 is to evaluate the modified extended-length bar screens at John Day Dam on the Columbia River. The goal of Study 6 is to evaluate the juvenile fish bypass system at John Day Dam. The goal of Study 7 is to evaluate the modified juvenile fish bypass system at the second powerhouse of Bonneville Dam on the Columbia River. The research will provide information that will be used to develop corrective measures to improve juvenile fish passage at the dams. Permit 1213 expires on December 31, 1999.

BILLING CODE 3510-22-F

COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records; Annual Publication

AGENCY: Commodity Futures Trading Commission.

ACTION: Publication of annual notice of the existence and character of each system of records that the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission") maintains which contains information about individuals.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this notice is to announce the existence and character of the systems of records of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission as required by the Privacy Act of 1974, Pub. L. 93-579, 5 U.S.C. 552a.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(f), the Commission, on August 8, 1975, promulgated rules relating to records maintained by the Commission concerning individuals (40 FR 41056). The rules as amended (17 CFR part 146) address an individual's rights to know what information the Commission has in its files concerning the individual; to have access to those records; to petition the Commission to have inaccurate or incomplete records amended or corrected; and not to have personal information disseminated to unauthorized persons. The full text of the Commission's rules implementing the Privacy Act can be found in 17 CFR part 146.

Under 17 CFR 146.11(a), the Commission is required to publish annually a notice of the existence and character of each system of records it maintains which contains information about individuals. This notice implements this requirement and, when read together with the Commission's rules, will provide individuals with the information that they need to exercise fully their rights under the Privacy Act.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Edward W. Colbert, Assistant Secretary to the Commission, Freedom of Information Act, Privacy Act and Government in the Sunshine Act Compliance Office, (202) 418-5105, or Stacy Dean Yochum, Counsel to the Executive Director, (202) 418-5157, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Three Lafayette Centre, 1155 21st Street, NW, Washington, DC 20581.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Content of Systems Notices

Each of the notices contains the following information:

1. The name of the system;
2. The location of the system;
3. The categories of individuals on whom records are maintained in the system;
4. The categories of records maintained in the system;
5. The authority for maintaining the system;

10. The categories of sources of records in the system.

The following four systems of records have been exempted, as set forth in the descriptions of these systems of records, from certain requirements of the Privacy Act, as authorized under 5 U.S.C. 552a(k):

CFTC-9 Confidential information obtained during employee background investigations.

CFTC-10 Investigatory materials compiled for law enforcement purposes.

CFTC-31 Information pertaining to individuals discussed as closed Commission meetings.

CFTC-32 Investigatory materials compiled by the Office of the Inspector General.

The Location of Systems of Records

The Commission offices are in the following locations:

- Three Lafayette Centre, 1155 21st Street, NW., Washington, DC 20581, Telephone: (202) 418-5000;
- 300 Riverside Plaza, Suite 1600 North, Chicago, Illinois 60606, Telephone: (312) 353-5990;
- 4900 Main Street, Suite 721, Kansas City, Missouri 64112, Telephone: (816) 931-7600;
- One World Trade Center, Suite 3747, New York, New York 10048, Telephone: (212) 466-2061;
- Murdock Plaza, 10900 Wilshire Blvd, Suite 400, Los Angeles, California 90024, Telephone: (310) 235-6783; and
- 510 Grain Exchange Building, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55415, Telephone: (612) 370-3255.

Where a system of records is stored in multiple locations, the notice merely identifies the offices and refers to this introductory section for each address. The Commission's headquarters office is in Washington, DC, and is referred to in the systems notice as the "principal office." The Commission maintains regional offices in Chicago and New York and smaller offices in Kansas City, Minneapolis and Los Angeles. For purposes of this notice, the regional offices and smaller offices are referred to collectively as the "regional offices," "All CFTC offices" means the headquarters office, the regional offices and the smaller offices.

In many cases, records within a system are not available at each of the offices listed in the system notice. For example, case files are basically maintained in the office where the investigation is conducted, but certain information may be maintained in other offices as well. It is the Commission's responsibility, unless otherwise specified in the system notice, to determine where the particular records being sought are located. However, if the individual seeking the records in fact knows the location, it would be helpful to the Commission if the requester would indicate that location.

Scope and Content of Systems of Records

The Privacy Act applies to personal information about individuals. Personal information subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act may sometimes be found in a system of records that might appear to relate solely to commercial matters. For example, the system of records concerning registration of the various categories of registrants (CFTC-20) contains primarily business information. However, a firm's application for registration contains a few items of personal information concerning key personnel. Since the capability exists through the National Futures Association's computer system to retrieve information from this system of records not only by use of the name of the firm but also by the use of the name of these individuals, this information is within the purview of the Privacy Act. See the definition of system of records in the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(5), and § 146.2(g) of the commission's Privacy Act rules, 17 CFR 146.2(g).

Such a capability would generally not exist, however, in a Commission staff investigation of the activities of a firm unless an individual is registered as an FCM, IB, CTA or CPO. That is, if the investigation was opened under the name of the FCM, information would be retrievable only under that name. Accordingly, information about principals of a firm under investigation that might be developed during the investigation would generally not be retrievable by the name of the individual, and the provisions of the Privacy Act would not apply.

General Statement of Routine Uses

A principal purpose of the Privacy Act is to restrict the unauthorized dissemination of personal information concerning an individual. In this connection, the Privacy Act and the Commission's rules prohibit dissemination except for specific purposes. Individuals should refer to the full text of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a(b), and to the Commission's rules, 17 CFR part 146, for a complete list of authorized disclosures. Only those arising most frequently have been mentioned herein.

The Privacy Act and the Commission's rules specifically provide that disclosure may be made with the written consent of the individual to whom the record pertains. Disclosure may also be made to those officers and employees of the Commission who need the record in the performance of their duties. In addition, disclosures are authorized if they are made pursuant to the terms of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

In addition, the Privacy Act and the Commission's rules permit disclosure of individual records if it is for a "routine use," which is defined as a use of a record that is compatible with the purpose for which it was collected. Unless otherwise indicated, the following routine uses of Commission records are applicable to all CFTC systems. To avoid unnecessary repetition of these routine uses, where they are generally applicable, the system notice refers the reader to the "General State of Routine Uses." The notice for each system of records lists any specific routine uses that are applicable to that system.

1. The information may be used by the Commission in any administrative proceeding before the Commission, in any injunctive action authorized under the Commodity Exchange Act or in any other action or proceeding in which the Commission or its staff participates as a party or the Commission participates as amicus curiae.

2. The information may be given to the Justice Department, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the United States Postal Service, the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Agriculture, the Office of Personnel Management, and to other Federal, state or local law enforcement or regulatory agencies for use in meeting responsibilities assigned to them under the law, or made available to any member of Congress who is acting in his capacity as a member of Congress.

3. The information may be given to any board of trade designated as a contract market by the Commission if the Commission has reason to believe this will assist the contract market in carrying out its responsibilities under the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 1, et seq., and to any national securities exchange or national securities association registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, to assist those organizations in carrying out their self-regulatory responsibilities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1935, 15 U.S.C. 78a, et seq.

4. At the discretion of the Commission staff, the information may be given or shown to anyone during the course of a Commission investigation if the staff has reason to believe that the person to whom it is disclosed may have further information about the matters discussed therein and those matters appear relevant to the subject of the investigation.

5. The information may be included in a public report issued by the Commission following an investigation, to the extent that this is authorized under Section 8 of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 12. Section 8 authorizes publication of such reports but contains restrictions on the publication of certain types of sensitive business developed during an investigation. In certain contexts, some of this information might be considered personal in nature.

6. The information may be disclosed to a Federal agency in response to its request in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract or the issuance of a license, or a grant or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information may be relevant to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

7. The information may be disclosed to a prospective employer in response to its request in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, to the extent that the information is believed to be relevant to the prospective employer's decision in the matter.

8. The information may be disclosed to any person, pursuant to Section 12(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 U.S.C. 16(a), when disclosure will further the policies of the Act or of other provisions of law. Section 12(a) authorizes the Commission to cooperate with various other government authorities or with "any person."
