

pending final resolution of the motion for proposed modification of the decree.

The terms of the proposed modification would (1) prohibit Nextel from acquiring Geotek's 900 MHz licenses in the Category A and B Cities; (2) increase the limits on Nextel's and Motorola's 900 MHz channels, to permit them to hold or acquire up to one hundred eight (108) 900 MHz channels in the Category A Cities, and fifty-four (54) 900 MHz channels in the Category B Cities; and (3) terminate the Modified Final Judgment on October 30, 2000. Finally, the proposed modification would vacate the provision of the Final Judgment that alters the standard of review for modification as of July 25, 2000.

The Department and Nextel have filed memoranda with the Court setting forth the reasons why they believe that modification of the Final Judgment would serve the public interest. Copies of Nextel's motion to modify, the stipulation containing the Department's consent, the supporting memoranda, and all additional papers filed with the Court in connection with this motion will be available for inspection at the Antitrust Documents Group of the Antitrust Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Room 215, Liberty Place Building, 325 7th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20004, and at the Office of the Clerk of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. Copies of these materials may be obtained from the Antitrust Division upon request and payment of the duplicating fee determined by Department of Justice regulations.

Interested persons may submit comments regarding the proposed termination of the Judgment to the Department. Such comments must be received by the Antitrust Division within thirty (30) days. The Department will publish in the Federal Register and file with the Court any comments and responses thereto. Comments should be addressed to Donald J. Russell, Chief, Telecommunications Task Force, Antitrust Division, U.S. Department of Justice, 1401 H Street, N.W., Suite 8000, Washington, D.C. 20005, telephone (202) 514-6381.
