National Institute of Corrections

Solicitation for a Cooperative Agreement

Summary: The Department of Justice (DOJ), National Institute of Corrections (NIC), announces the availability of funds in FY 1999 for a cooperative agreement to fund the "Development of a Training Video on Staff Sexual Misconduct."

The National Institute of Corrections (NIC) invites application for a cooperative agreement to develop a training video and companion facilitator's manual on the prevention of staff sexual misconduct with inmates. To expand the Institute's capacity to assist correctional agencies in working with line staff, the award recipient will develop a video to be used by agency training personnel. The video will emphasize state and federal laws that address sexual misconduct, case histories demonstrating the dynamics of staff sexual misconduct, and preventative remedies for avoiding misconduct. The companion manual will guide trainers in delivering the training through interactive discussion with trainees on key points in the video and applying the training to the state or local setting.

The award recipient will become familiar with the work currently being done at NIC on issues related to staff sexual misconduct and will develop strategies for capturing this information in video and training formats. The recipient will refine training outcomes for the video and training guide in collaboration with NIC.

This will be collaborative venture with the NIC Prisons Division. A total of $80,000 is reserved for the project which will support one cooperative agreement for a 12 month period. The recipient of the award will be selected through a competitive solicitation process. Andie Moss is the designated NIC project manager.
