

is presently provided under Part 157 of the Commission's regulations pursuant to authorization in Docket No. CP74-33, as amended. It is asserted that CGV has notified Transco by letter dated February 23, 1999, of its intention to terminate its storage service effective July 31, 1999. Transco explains that it held an open season for the capacity, and agreed to provide storage service under its Part 284 blanket certificate for Koch Energy Trading, which submitted a binding nomination for the capacity. It is asserted that no facilities would be abandoned as a result of the proposal and no customers would lose service.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before July 13, 1999, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Transco to appear or be represented at the hearing.

David P. Boergers,

Secretary.

[Docket No. RP99-335-000]

Transwestern Pipeline Company; Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

June 22, 1999.

Take notice that on June 16, 1999, Transwestern Pipeline Company (Transwestern), tendered for filing to become part of Transwestern's FERC Gas Tariff, Second Revised Volume No. 1, the following tariff sheets proposed to be effective July 17, 1999:

Sixth Revised Sheet No. 95A
Fifth Revised Sheet No. 95B
Fifth Revised Sheet No. 95H
Second Revised Sheet No. 95J

Transwestern is proposing to amend the General Terms and Conditions section of its Tariff to provide additional flexibility in the billing and crediting of demand charges for Releasing Shippers involved in capacity release transactions on Transwestern's system and to update its Tariff to reflect current FERC Regulations.

Transwestern states that copies of the filing were served upon Transwestern's customers and interested State Commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 or 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceedings. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room. This filing may be viewed on the web at <http://www.ferc.fed.us/online/rims.htm> (call 202-208-2222 for assistance).
