Development of a Public Health Action Plan to Combat Antimicrobial Resistance

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Food and Drug Administration (FDA), and National Institutes of Health (NIH) announce an open meeting concerning antimicrobial resistance.

Name: Development of a Public Health Action Plan to Combat Antimicrobial Resistance.

Times and Dates: 10:30 a.m.-6 p.m., July 19, 1999. 8a.m.-6 p.m., July 20, 1999. 8a.m.-3:30 p.m., July 21, 1999.

Place: Sheraton Atlanta Hotel, 165 Courtland at International Boulevard, Atlanta, Georgia 30303.

Status: Open to the public, limited only by the space available.

Purpose: To solicit input from invited consultants regarding items to be included in a Public Health Action Plan that, when published, will serve as a blueprint for activities of Federal agencies to combat antimicrobial resistance. The Plan is being developed by a Task Force composed of Federal personnel from several Federal agencies and departments, co-chaired by CDC, FDA, and NIH. The focus of the Plan will be on domestic activities.

Matters To Be Discussed: The agenda will focus on the following topics related to antimicrobial resistance:

1. Surveillance
2. Prevention and control
3. Research
4. Product development

Comments and suggestions from the consultants for specific action items for Federal agencies related to each of these topics will be taken under advisement by the task force. The Task Force may also utilize other sources of information in developing the Action Plan. The agenda does not include development of consensus positions, guidelines, or discussions or endorsements of specific commercial products.

Agenda items are subject to change as priorities dictate.

Limited time will be available for oral comments and suggestions from the public. Written comments and suggestions from the public are encouraged and should be received by the contact person listed below by August 22, 1999.

Persons anticipating attending the meeting are requested to send written notification by July 12, 1999, including name, organization (if applicable), address, phone, fax, and email addresses to the contact below.
