AGENCY: General Services Administration (GSA).

ACTION: Notice of request for approval of a new information collection entitled American Customer Satisfaction Index.

SUMMARY: The General Services Administration has submitted an emergency processing information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35). OMB approval has been requested by July 6, 1999. The proposed information collection activity is designed to support the customer satisfaction policies outlined in Executive Order 12862, "Setting Customer Service Standards", and to establish a means to consistently measure and compare customer satisfaction among high-impact agencies within the Executive Branch. The ACSI is a cross-industry, cross-agency methodology for obtaining comparable measures of customer satisfaction. Along with other economic objectives—such as employment and growth—the quality of output (goods and services) is a part of living standards. Like other objectives, it is subjected to systematic and uniform measurement.
